A Camp Meeting Remedy

WHAT TO DO. You are liable to a process of inflammation when summering at your Grove. If the weather is damp and rainy you are susceptible to colds, more particularly Sore Throat, Laryngitis and acute Colds in the Chest, which may be followed by Pneumonia, Pleurisy and Bronchitis. ANTI-ITIS, as its name denotes its use to you, applied to any part of the body that is inflamed, covered with cotton batting oiled silk or paper and a bandage will restore the inflamed part to its natural state. The oiled silk or paper prevents the exudation that the ANTI-ITIS draws out from passing through the bandage but holds it in the cotton.

If you should injure yourself by falling on a stump causing black and blueness ANTI-ITIS applied removes the black and blueness, prevents the swelling and restores the inflamed surface to its natural state in five to ten to twenty four hours.

For Sprains ANTI-ITIS should be applied warm and changed every few hours. For sore Feet apply ANTI-ITIS at night covered with cotton batting and a sock. For Insect Bites, such as mosquitoes, etc., ANTI-ITIS applied prevents the pain, swelling and redness. Why? It cools, soothes and draws. Remember that ANTI-ITIS can be applied to the most delicate skin as it does not irritate but has cooling, soothing and drawing action wherever it is applied.

Your store at the Grove will supply you with ANTI-ITIS and a book, WHAT TO DO, describing the use of ANTI-ITIS and an Accident Chart.

ANTI-ITIS is a home remedy for all as inflammation is the first noticeable cause that is present in all diseases to which the human flesh is subject.

ANTI-ITIS means Anti-Inflammation and is the antidote for inflammation

ANTI-ITIS is prepared in our laboratory in Massachusetts where nothing else is manufactured and is offered to you as the only preparation for all home use. It is the highest grade preparation registered under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Serial Number 3066 Never accept a package unless the word ANTI-ITIS is stamped on the bottom of the can.

ANTI-ITIS is put up as follows: —
1-2 lb 25c; 1 lb 50c; 1 3-4 lb 75c; Hospital size.

Of Interest to Tourists

A most interesting place to visit in Salem is the studio of Sarah W. Symonds in the Old John Ward House, built in 1694. It is one of the best old houses left standing,—its projecting upper story, its old time lean-to, with little corner shop, are of great interest to all sight-seers. The interior of the house is most interesting, with its great beams hewn by hand, little winding stair-way, and massive chimney making a most attractive setting for Miss Symonds' work, which is most unique, and original models in bas relief of the old historic houses, modelled views of the North Shore, college seals, coat-of-arms, etc. The collection is large and varied, and one looking for a souvenir of worth, originality and permanent value, will be able to secure such at this old studio and at a reasonable cost.

All visitors are cordially welcomed and shown through the old house.

The Beverly people gave a most enjoyable dinner in the Reading building (now the Beverly house) to all the Grovites who wished to partake thereof. Many availed themselves of the privilege and went away praising the toothsome viands provided by the good housewives of Beverly. Rev. L. W. Adams was the moving spirit of the house and made all feel at home. The society netted a goodly sum for the M. E. Church.

In Old Salem

PHYLLIS and I were on our wedding journey. How it came about that Phyllis was ever persuaded to take such a journey in such company, is quite another story. We had agreed to call upon Aunt Dorcas, and the latter part of this trip must be taken by trolley from Town House Square, in Salem, to the terminus at Danvers Centre. This was old familiar ground for Phyllis, but new ground for me; therefore I begged her to see to it that I observed all the points of interest along the way.

We boarded a car marked, very plainly, "Danvers Centre." This car stood by the tunnel, in Town House Square. "Now we shall go out through North Salem," said Phyllis. "Its old name was North Fields. There the powder was stored, before the battle of Lexington, after the General Court was forbidden to meet in Boston, and met in Concord instead. So Colonel Leslie and his men were sent to take the powder one Sunday morning in February. They marched out from Boston to Salem and they came to this bridge, which is just in front of us, now. It isn't a drawbridge now, but it was then, and the draw worked from the other side. So the patriots hid the boats and pulled up the draw and the soldiers had to stay on the south side until Colonel Leslie agreed to a compromise. The draw was put down and the colonel marched his men a certain number of paces across the bridge, then he faced them about and went back to Boston to report that he had been into North Salem and found no military stores secreted there. That monument by the sidewalk commemorates this event."

"Now we are going out through North Salem. Danvers was for a long time a part of Salem and was called Salem Village or Salem Farms. This is Moody Square, named for the cabinet member and that is Greenlawn Cemetery, and now we come to the beginning of St. Mary's Cemetery.

"Now we have passed to the bound-stone, and here at the left are the golf links, while the fine old place at the right is the Gardner Farm. Does it remind you of our fruit farm on the slopes of Wachusett?

"Look at the landscape for a change. When we leave this turnout we go down Gardner's Hill. I saw a snowdrift eighteen feet high on this hill once upon a time. Now you can see the State Insane Asylum, straight ahead, and to the right, the long slope of Folly Hill. Have you read Hawthorne's story about it?

"This is Mr. Penn Hussey's place. He is very public spirited and helped the town to build this fine new bridge over Waters River. Isn't this a pretty view? Off to the left is Governor Endicott's original grant of land, obtained in 1628 from the Indians. The rolling mills at the right are also very old, being among the first established in this country. But do not miss the graceful slope of this tree-dotted hill and the tall white house behind the trees. It is the Ben Porter place."

"Now we shall go down a short, steep hill to where Crane River widens out into a mill pond. The road makes a sharp turn here beside the Eastern Station, and right in front of you, see the monument. It was erected by the D. A. R. to the memory of Israel Hutchinson, who commanded the Danvers men in the battle of Lexington. Our men were the first on the ground, except those from Concord and Lexington. They marched the sixteen miles in four hours; also they lost more heavily than any other town, and the dead men were brought back and laid side by side in the big front room of Israel Hutchinson's house, which stands here by the turn-out.

"Now look off to the right. How blue the water of Danvers River! How green the grass, and how sweet the nearer view of Folly Hill, golden with wood-wax! I heard a lady praise that as 'golden rod' once! No golden rod blooms as early as this. See how it glorifies the long whaleback of Folly Hill. Of the three plants that escaped from Governor Endicott's garden, this one has hardly spread beyond the original limits of Salem, and the barberry is confined to Essex County; while the white daisy has spread almost as far and wide as the descendants of the Puritans.

"Here we come into Danvers Square. Berry Tavern, very old, is on our right, and just ahead the house with gambrel roof—have you ever read Lucy Larcom's poem? Major Audrey and his wife lived there before the Revolution. He was a staunch patriot, and forbade his wife to drink tea in his house. So next time he went away, she had a tea party out on the roof.

"Now this is the Town Hall, with the soldiers' monument in front, erected to the soldiers of the Civil War. Just across here to the left is the Peabody Institute, given to the town by George Peabody, the great London banker. He was a poor boy who grew up in this part of the country. George crossed the seas to London town, and there he became a famous banker and philanthropist, and he hob-nobbed with Queen Victoria and other aristocrats, and built rows upon rows of model tenement houses, and his money is building them yet.

"Here we are in Tapleville, and the old house on the hill is the Nourse House. Rebecca Nourse was hanged because she would not own herself to be a witch. Her sons stole her body, and buried it where the pines stand on the flat. Do you see the monument? Whittier, the poet, who lived just across here at Oak Knoll, wrote the epitaph for it.

"The church here on the hill is the First Church of witchcraft fame, and we are in Danvers Centre. On the slopes of that cedar-covered hill behind the church the witches walked, or rode their broom-sticks, or signed their names in the black man's book. This common, with its boulder monument, was the old training ground from which our men set out to join Captain Lothrop's company, 'the flower of Essex,' slain at the battle of Bloody Brook, in King Philip's War. And now we reach the terminus, the old Newburyport turnpike, built to carry freight before there were any railroads. The house where Israel Hutchinson was born stands at the top of the hill. And now I hope Aunt Dorcas has red raspberries for tea."—First prize winning story in Tri-State Tourist.

Obituary

Mrs. Sarah Amanda Coath, wife of Daniel Coath, Superintendent of the Commercial Pacific Cable Co., formerly of Rockport, and eldest daughter of Harding K. and Amanda Cobb, died in Shanghai, China, Feb. 12. She was born at North Eastham, Mass., July 14, 1859. Married 1883, her home for nineteen years from 1884, was at Rockport. In 1904 she joined her husband at the island of Guam, for one year, where he was superintending the laying of the Commercial Pacific Cable. The family was transferred to Shanghai early in 1906. The China Daily News said: "There have been no more popular recruits to the American Colony of Shanghai in recent months than Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Coath and daughter, who arrived a year ago on the completion of the Commercial Pacific Cable. It was therefore with a keen sense of loss that many learned of Mrs. Coath's painfully sudden death. She had become interested during her brief stay here, in Chinese matters as well as American and in philanthropic as well as social circles her presence will be missed."

After an illness of only a week she died on the anniversary of her arrival in China.

The bereaved mother, Mrs. Cobb, resides at 14 Chauncey St., Cambridge.—Zion's Herald.

Mrs. Lora F. (Gould), wife of Mr. Andrew Wood of South Weymouth, died Sept. 30, 1906. She had been an invalid for years, having heart trouble from the effects of which she passed away.

She was the daughter of John and Annie Gould of North Leeds, Maine, and the mother of seven children. Two daughters still survive. Mr. and Mrs. Wood celebrated their golden wedding Sept. 29, 1905.

Mrs. Wood will be remembered by many of the cottagers, she being one of the cottage owners on Asbury avenue for many years. She loved to entertain the young people of the Grove who were much interested in her "Polly". Mr. Wood has sold all of the cottages and is now residing with his oldest living daughter, Mrs. Sweet, at South Weymouth. He has many kind friends, but "none of them" he says "can fill his wife's place, and he is only awaiting the summons to go and meet her."

In the death of Mrs. Wilcomb, widow of Hon. Frederic Wilcomb, there passed from earth one of those rarely choice spirits of whom it may be said, "her price is far above rubies." Mrs. Wilcomb passed away on the afternoon of Friday, March 22, after an illness of many weeks, during which she was a great sufferer. For several days before her death she lingered in seeming unconsciousness on the borderland of time and eternity until release came most peacefully and she slipped away to join the many dear ones gone before.

Mrs. Wilcomb was born in Ipswich, in October, 1841, and was the youngest child of the late Samuel and Lucy (Caldwell) Hunt. Her lineage was of the best and her life was worthy of her honorable descent. Her education was received in the public schools. From earliest girlhood she developed a remarkable capability and "the work of her hands," of whatever kind it might be, was sure to be of exceptional merit. She was gentle and generous; self-reliant, but never self-seeking; quiet and unassuming in manner without ostentation in any direction; a woman whose right and left hands knew little of what the other was doing in the way of helping other people. "Envy, hatred, and malice" had no part in her make-up, but hers was by no means a negative character. She was positive in principle, in conviction and in purpose, and the influence of her quiet life and Christian example prove fully that "there are many better ways of teaching, than by talking."

Several years of Mrs. Wilcomb's life were devoted to the care of an invalid aunt. After her death, she became the wife of Hon. Frederick Wilcomb, who, although ten years her senior, always had been a friend and neighbor and to whom she proved a most devoted helpmate. Like her husband, Mrs. Wilcomb was connected with the Methodist church and was very helpful in all its activities.

Two sisters, who have made their home with Mrs. Wilcomb, survive her, Mrs. Mary Hunt Spiller and Miss Abbie Hunt.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon and were largely attended, many members of the M. E. church and the entire Ladies' Aid being present, together with a large circle of relatives. Few women in private life are so deeply and widely mourned. The service was conducted by the Rev. Frederic Woods in tones tremulous with feeling, the words of the Holy Writ seeming to acquire a new meaning and deep-

Memorial Day at Asbury Grove

May 30 was a beautiful day, though cool, and many persons came to the Grove for an outing, a number stopping over the Sabbath.

B. D. Arms & Co. of Maplewood opened the store May 18 with a stock of groceries, also wood and coal. The Taylor Bros. intend to cater to the wants of their customers in all lines, and have distributed circulars to that effect, at the cottages on all the avenues in the Grove.

The following list does not include every one present May 30, but a large number of the visitors' names and the several avenues where they were stopping.

AROUND THE CIRCLE

At the Jesse Lee, Lynn, House the A. F. F. Club of Lynn had an enjoyable outing. Nine members were present, as follows: J. F. Lewis, George Perkins, J. B. Montgomery, Clarence Wood, Leslie Wood, Leland Croscup, Prescott Barker, George Boynton and Walter H. Hill.

The East Boston BETHEL was opened for the day and the several visitors enjoyed the day thoroughly.

At the Melrose House were the Matron Mrs. Double, F. Sullivan and wife, Mr. Kenison and wife, Mrs. Prior and daughter, Miss Laura Prior, Mrs. W. H. "OLD ABE."

The War Eagle

THE EAGLE that has a national reputation as "Old Abe" was captured on Flambeau River, near the line between Ashland and Price Counties, in Wisconsin, in 1861, by Chief Sky, a Chipewewa Indian, and was sold by him for a bushel of corn, and subsequently disposed of for $5 to a Mr Mills, who presented him to Company C of the Eighth Wisconsin Regiment. The bird was named in honor of President Lincoln, and the men of Co C were known as the Eau Claire Eagles, and the Eighth Regiment as the Eagle Regiment. Old Abe accompanied the Regiment to the South and occupied a conspicuous position on a perch which was carried alongside of the colors. His first pitched battle was at Farmington, Miss. He was wounded in front of Corinth and before Vicksburg and was injured enroute from Memphis to Helena. From the time he joined the regiment until it was finally mustered out of service Old Abe was engaged in thirty-six battles. He always announced the approach of an enemy by a note of alarm and at the siege of Corinth the rebel general, Price, is said to have ordered his men to capture or kill the bird, at the same time remarking that he would rather capture Old Abe than a whole brigade. When Company C was mustered out it was resolved that Old Abe should be presented to the State of Wisconsin, and in the autumn of 1864 he was carried back to his native State, and on September 26 he was formally accepted by Governor Lewis on behalf of the State. During the winter of 1864-'65 he was exhibited at the Sanitary Fair in Chicago, and the sale of his picture and a little pamphlet history of his exploits netted to the fund for sick and disabled soldiers the sum of $16,000. From that time until his death, which occurred in 1881, he was exhibited at fairs, political conventions and soldiers' reunions without number. A model of him was taken by the sculptor, Leonard W Volk, and several magnificent monuments have been graced with his counterfeit presentment. He died March 26, 1881, presumably from the effects of smoke inhaled at a fire in the Capital at Madison in the earlier part of the year. He was stuffed and stood in the war museum of the State Capital until it was burned February, 27, 1904.

Grove Visitors Patriots Day

Although the day was unpleasant, many of the cottagers opened their cottages. With a good coal fire they were quite comfortable, despite the inclement weather outside. Many visitors came to the Grove for the day; some to hire a cottage for the summer and some for the day's outing. Several families had passed the winter in the Grove and although the weather had been quite severe, they had not suffered much.

About twenty-five came down in the early car which connected with the train at Wenham Depot. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sherburne, and Mrs. Rosanna Robbins of Rockport; Mr. John W. Rowe and son Carlton, of Gloucester; Misses Emily and Helen Severance, Mrs. George Parrott and son, George E. Parrott, and Miss Mabel Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Adams, Messrs. John Stanley, George Burgess, and Griffin of Lynn; Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and H. A. Derby of Salem.

Mrs. John Stanley and sister, Miss Lulu Searle, Mrs. Burgess and Miss Alice Burgess of Lynn came later.

The 8.10 a. m. electric from Salem brought several visitors, among whom were Mrs. Frank W. Bernard, Mrs. Jessie E. Bolton, Miss Frances Evelyn Bolton, of Beverly, and the publisher of the MENTOR, Miss J. A. Riggs of Salem.

The Beverly Society have bought the Reading building near Sunnyside, and several from that city were down for the day, among whom, beside those formerly mentioned, were Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Adams and family, Mrs. Amy M. Smith, Mrs. Fred. Dewing, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Smalley, Master Eddie Smalley, Mrs. Alice Merrill, Mrs. E. A. G. Stickney and Miss Isabel Stickney, of East Brownfield, Me; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gould and son, of Boston, were visitors at the Beverly building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elliott of Danvers, Miss Margaret M. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Norton and Mrs. Mary Huntington of Salem; Mrs. P. H. Low, of Essex; Mrs. Rankin of Wenham Depot; Mrs. Woods and Mr. R. W. Osborne of Beverly; G. A. Crosman of Swampscott; Mr. Kenison, wife, daughters and niece of Melrose; Edna Gould of Everett; C. C. Taylor of Maplewold; F. L. Sears of Peabody; Mrs. M. E. Harrington and daughter Florence of East Boston, also L. Rich of Dorchester; C. E. Tarr and wife of Gloucester; H. A. Spates and Mrs. Wm. Welden of Winchester and George H. Spates of Stoneham; Mr. Alfred Lincoln, wife and son, Mr. O. B. Chase and wife, Mr. L.

H. Arey and wife of Boston were visitors for the day.

Among the other visitors from Lynn were M. E. Struthers and wife, Mr. Mockett and wife, J. M. Cromie and wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Ashley, Miss L. F. Jaquith, Messrs. Herbert Jaquith and G. F. Putney, G. B. Thomas and wife, W. F. Waitt, wife and granddaughter Rosamond.

Mr. J. G. Jones and family of Charlestown were at 4 Essex avenue.

Gloucester Day

The committee have had 10,000 gummed designs printed at the Gloucester Daily TIMES office. The design is in red and white as follows; "Come Back to Dear Old Gloucester, Mass. Cape Ann Will Welcome You Gloucester Day, Thursday, August 15, 1907." In the centre is a fine picture of City Hall with the caption, "1623-1907." Fred W. er significance from the reverent reading and sympathetic expression. The service was simple, including only the Scripture lesson, prayer, benediction and the singing of the hymns, "Lead Kindly Light," and "Asleep in Jesus," sung by the quartet, Miss Elizabeth Atherley, Mrs. Harriet Gove Shaw, Messrs. Dexter and Burnham.

The body, lifelike and beautiful in its calmness and peace, lay in a broadcloth-covered casket, its quiet tone of gray nearly concealed by the exquisite blossoms arranged in profusion about it. A sheaf of calla lilies upon the foot and another of Easter lilies near the head of the casket spoke eloquently of the beauty of the life ended here and the happy resurrection beyond. Hundreds of pinks, roses, lilies, spirea, and other flowers were scattered over and around the casket, conspicuous among them being a tribute from the Ladies' Aid Society. The interment was at Locust Grove Cemetery, where

"Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now our dear one sleeping."

Ipswich Chronicle.

Patriot's Day the cottagers at Asbury Grove received the sad news that Mrs. Mary E. Child, widow of the late William E. Child of Medford, had died April 16, at the age of 85 years.

Mrs. Mary E. Child was born in Saugus, August, 1822. She was the oldest daughter of Stephen and Mary Smith. She married Wm. C. Child in 1843, lived in Boston, and was a member of Hanover Street Church until 1857, when they moved to Medford. Prominently identified with the Medford Methodist Church. She was a charter member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and always very active in the work.

She came to Asbury Grove the first year a camp-meeting was held there, and has missed only one year since that time. Her cottage on Central avenue was one of the first built.

Mrs. Child and Miss Henrietta Lindsay were the starters of the Society known as the Asbury Gleaners, and Mrs. Child was the President for the thirty-two years it has been in existence.

She leaves a son, Wm. G. Child, a sister, Miss Elizabeth Smith and a brother, Mr. John W. Smith.

THE NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE

The New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held its one hundred and eleventh annual session in the First M. E. Church, Lynn, April 9-15, inclusive. Bishop H. W. Warren, D. D., L. L. D., presiding.

Several other meetings were held during the day beside those mentioned below, but space forbids a longer account of the Conference.

April 9, at 7.45 p. m. the Epworth League held its anniversary.

April 10, the regular Conference sessions opened with Holy Communion at 9.30 a. m.

April 11, the day's session opened with Devotional Service at 8.30 a. m. At 2 p. m. was the Reception to Members of the New England Conference, and inspection of the new Deaconess Hospital Building, Longwood, Boston. Rev. N. T. Whitaker presided at the Deaconess Hospital Anniversary. The address was by Principal C. S. Bragdon of Lasell Seminary. Luncheon was served to Members of the Conference by ladies of the Newton churches.

April 12, the services opened at 8.30 p. m., with an address by Rev. George S. Butters. At 2 p. m. the Missionary sermon was most interesting. A pleasing feature of the day was the representation of Bible costumes and manners, many stories of the New Testament being vividly portrayed to an interested audience.

April 13, at 8.30 a. m. the address was by Rev. W. N. Mason. The Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies were held at 2 and 3 p. m. Reception to Ministers' wives and daughters was held at the parsonage, No. 3 Franklin street, at 4.15 p. m.

April 14, Conference Love Feast was held at 9 a. m. The Ordination of Deacons, Consecration of Deaconesses and Ordination of Elders followed at different hours of the day.

April 15, the address at 8.30 a. m. by Rev. E. M. Antrim was on "The Punishment of Prayerlessness." Appointments were read and Conference adjourned.

Purchase Law for Women

It should be a violation for any dealer to present anyone asking for an article with an imitation, for everything today is an imitation. One woman imitates another.

ANTI-ITIS is the only preparation that is not an imitation as a household remedy.

Inflammation is recognized by heat, redness, pain and swelling. Any disease that produces sickness, whether internal or external, has to pass through the process of inflammation.

The name ANTI-ITIS denotes its use, as it subdues all forms of inflammation. For summer ailments, such as sore fingers, boils, burns, sprains, bruises, etc. ANTI-ITIS cools, soothes and absorbs the swelling on all inflamed tissues and converts the inflamed part back to nature's function.

Price of ANTI-ITIS: 1-2 lb. 25c., 1 lb. 50c.; 1 3-4 lb. 75c.

All dealers carry ANTI-ITIS.

Wedding Bells

BLANCHARD—PRICE

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Price, 167 Williams avenue, was a scene of a brilliant wedding reception on Wednesday evening, April 17, 1907, when their daughter, Miss Nettie May Price, was united in marriage to Luther Philip Blanchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Blanchard of East Boston. Over three hundred invitations were extended to friends to attend the reception.

Only the immediate friends attended the wedding ceremony at 7 o'clock. A floral bower was arranged in the back parlor before which the couple stood, and the marriage vows were given and taken. The residence was finely decorated, pink being the predominating color. Tropical foliage and hothouse blooms were tastefully arranged in the several rooms.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March announced the coming of the bridal party. The wedding march was rendered as a piano duet by Mr. William G. Ward and Miss Christina Furber. The bride was escorted by her father who gave her away; the ushers and the maid of honor preceded the bride. The double ring Episcopal service was used, Rev. Chas. Tilton, recent pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, officiating. The bride and the groom then received the congratulations of relatives and friends. The reception began at 8 o'clock and lasted about one hour.

The bride was charmingly attired in a princess creation of white silk messaline, over taffeta, en train. The trimmings were duchess lace. She wore the bridal veil, caught back with a spray of orange blossoms, a gift of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Abbott of Los Angeles, California, who brought them from her home for the bride, who carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Florence R. Newhall was maid of honor, and was becomingly gowned in an empire of white princess lace and chiffon, over pink taffeta, trimmed with white satin ribbon, carried a bouquet of blush roses and wore a wreath of the same in her hair. The groomsmen were Charles K. Knapp of Boston.

During the reception, the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the maid of honor, groomsmen and their parents. Mrs. Price wore a handsome gown of black peau de soie, with jet trimmings, while Mrs. Eben Blanchard was gowned in pearl gray peau de cygne with lace trimmings. Mrs. Price carried sweet peas, Mrs. Blanchard, violets.

The ushers were Dr. Wm. G. Ward of Lynn; Ralph K. Varley, Medford; H. West Leonard, Melrose; and J. Seymour

Luther, of Boston. After presentation a lunch was served in the dining room. Registration in the guest book was in charge of Miss Bessie H. Lombard, who was gowned in point de sprit over pink silk. Many guests registered from Los Angeles, California; Providence, R. I.; Milton, Nashua, N. H.; Boston, Brookline, Dorchester, Salem, Andover, Lawrence and Methuen.

The large assortment of wedding gifts in the gift room were in charge of Mrs. Fred. F. Conan and Mrs. Eugene J. Phaneuf, sister of the bride.

The St. Paul's Church choir of which the bride was a member, presented her with a picture of Raphael's "Madonna and Child."

Shortly after 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard left for their wedding trip.

The bride's going-away gown was of sepia brown with hat to match. After their wedding tour, they will reside in Boston.—Lynn Item.

MARTIN—VIDETTO

A pleasant home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. J. H. Handren, 432 Eastern avenue, Lynn, at 8:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 15. The contracting parties were Mrs. Etta Videtto of Lynn (Mrs. Handren's sister) and Mr. John H. Martin of Hamilton, who were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. James J. Goodacre, pastor of the Hamilton Congregational church. The ring ceremony was used. Over one hundred invited guests were present.

Miss May Martin of Cambridge, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Edward Swett of Roxbury was best man. The bride was tastefully gowned in white point d'Esprit and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in white Swiss muslin and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants. A collation was served to the invited guests who were present from Lynn, Roxbury, Dorchester, Cambridge, Newton, Newtonville, Saugus, Lowell, Danvers, Melrose, Malden and Nova Scotia.

The bridal presents were many and beautiful, consisting of cut glass, silver ware, and beautifully decorated china ware and linen.

The ushers were Wm. Martin of Cambridge and Fred Mowatt of Lynn.

The party left the week of May 20th, for Asbury Grove, where they will spend the summer at the Tyler cottage on Central avenue.

VALE—HASKELL

The marriage of Mr. William J. Vale and Miss Emma L. Haskell took place at North Beverly, Sunday, June 2. Miss Haskell is a well-known young lady of South Essex. Mr. Vale is a former resident of Gloucester. Rev. W.

C. Hodgson performed the marriage ceremony, the ring service being used. Miss Eulalie Riggs of Essex was bridesmaid, and Laban R. Hyland of Gloucester was best man. The bride's favor was gold pins set with pearls, groom's favor was scarf pin set with opals and chip diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Vale will reside at 20 Lennox Street, Beverly, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Boston's Big Reunion

The week is to be divided into the following special days, subject to revision:

Sunday, July 28—"Founders' Day." Dedicated to Blackstone, Winthrop and the early settlers, and marked by special religious exercises.

Monday, July 29—"Patriots' Day." Set apart in honor of Hancock, Adams, Revere and other patriot sons of Boston.

Tuesday, July 30—"Greater Boston Day." Dedicated to the suburban communities in Greater Boston.

Wednesday, July 31—"New England Day." Reception to the governors of the New England States by Governor Guild and Mayor Fitzgerald, and marked by a grand civic and trades procession.

Thursday, August 1—"Massachusetts Day." Dedicated to the people and industries of Massachusetts.

Friday, August 2—"Women's Day." Dedicated to the women of Boston and Massachusetts.

Saturday, August 3—"Baked Beans Day." Mobilization of the State militia.

In connection with the celebration, the New England railroads have granted a special reduced rate to Boston, and it is expected that all the large railroads of the country will authorize an excursion rate of one fare plus two dollars, similar to that announced by the New York Central and other lines.

Attractive red and white "stickers," announcing the date of the Boston Old-Home Week celebration and bearing a representation of the familiar Boston bean-pot, (see above cut) have been issued by the General Committee, and may be secured through its headquarters 950 Old South Building, at cost price, 50 cents per 1,000.

GAS - - - PROVERBS

GAS is lighter than air and inclines upwards; the price, however, has tended downward until it is now 85c.

ALWAYS settle gas bills by the tenth of the month and get the discount.

SATISFACTORY results in cooking can be obtained better by gas than by any other method. Gas

SAVES labor, money and much work for the fire department.

TWELVE dollars will buy a gas range not inferior to the best in the market.

OIL and Gasoline are responsible for 50 per cent. of fire casualties.

VALUABLE time is often wasted on a coal fire when a gas stove would do the work in a few minutes.

EVERYTHING considered, we advise everybody to use gas for cooking and heating, and electricity for light and for power.

SAVE money and do business with us.

WHAT TO DO. You are liable to a process of inflammation when summering at your Grove. If the weather is damp and rainy you are susceptible to colds, more particularly Sore Throat, Syngitis and acute Colds in the Chest, which may be followed by Pneumonia, urisy and Bronchitis. ANTI-ITIS, as its name denotes its use to you, applied to any part of the body that is injured, covered with cotton batting oiled per and a bandage will restore injured part to its natural state. oiled silk or paper prevents the exposure. ANTI-ITIS does not irritate and is safe for all ages. You should injure yourself by falling on a stump causing black and blue. ANTI-ITIS applied removes the

For Sprains ANTI-ITIS should be applied warm and changed every few hours. For sore Feet apply ANTI-ITIS at night covered with cotton batting and a sock. For Insect Bites, such as mosquitoes, etc., ANTI-ITIS applied prevents the pain, swelling and redness. Why? It cools, soothes and draws. Remember that ANTI-ITIS can be applied to the most delicate skin as it does not irritate but has cooling, soothing and drawing action wherever it is applied.

Your store at the Grove will supply you with ANTI-ITIS and a book, WHAT TO DO, describing the use of ANTI-ITIS and an Accident Chart.

ANTI-ITIS is a home remedy for all as inflammation is the first noticeable cause that is present in all diseases to which the human flesh is subject.

ANTI-ITIS means Anti-Inflammation and is the antidote for inflammation

ANTI-ITIS is prepared in our laboratory in Massachusetts where nothing else is manufactured and is offered to you as the only preparation for all home use. It is the highest grade preparation registered under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Serial Number 3066 Never accept a package unless the word ANTI-ITIS is stamped on the bottom of the can.

ANTI-ITIS is put up as follows:—
1-2lb 25c; 1lb 50c; 1 3-4lb 75c; Hospital size.

Cape Ann's First Regular Trip

The summer schedule of the Boston & Gloucester Steamship Company, went into effect Tuesday, June 25, the steamer Cape Ann making her regular noon trip bringing down over 100 passengers to Gloucester.

The craft is looking fine in her new coat of white. She has undergone a thorough overhauling, and is in perfect trim for the season.

The City of Gloucester and Cape Ann will run on the line and will leave the wharf foot of Pearce Street, daily at 2.15 p. m., and Boston 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. On Sundays, boats will leave Gloucester at 3.15 p. m., and Boston at 10.15 a. m.

Trade at the A. B. & W. Store

Almy, Bigelow & Washburn, Salem, Mass., the big department store of Essex County stands ready to fill the summer visitor's every want. Its thirty-six departments are overflowing with varied and up-to-date stocks of the most desirable merchandise for dress and the home.

Large roomy aisles, and plenty of light and fresh air make shopping a pleasure here. On the second floor is a pleasant and comfortable rest-room where shoppers can meet their friends and enjoy a little chat.

Those who intend remaining in the city for a number of hours will find the A. B. & W. balcony restaurant which is located at the rear of the house furnishing department a most convenient place in which to enjoy a hearty dinner, a dainty lunch or, perhaps, a refreshing ice.

Almy, Bigelow & Washburn make daily deliveries to the Grove so that there is no delay in the receipt of your goods. Small orders can be sent by mail and will be promptly filled by experienced mail order clerks. No matter what you want in department store merchandise—the A. B. and W. store can fill it in the best possible manner and at the most reasonable price.

A True American Lad

When the British left our shores at the close of the Revolution, says the Cleveland Leader, they left flying one royal flag which, as they nailed it to the flag pole, they fondly hoped would continue to kiss the breezes for some time to come. They had done this as an act of defiance to the young republic, and many a soldier's eye was turned upon this lone British emblem as the ships of King George dropped from the bay, and the spires of New York faded from view.

Mr. Guy Carleton had set apart a day for the evacuation of New York, and it was on Nov. 25. He was not very reluctant to leave, for the long eight years' war was over, and the colonies had not only beaten the king's men in fair fight, but had captured two of his best armies.

The Americans, led by some of their famous officers, were ready to march in and take possession of New York the moment the last red coat had vanished, and on the 25th there was a great deal of excitement, which could not be wholly subdued.

The streets were thronged with men and boys, and the latter were with difficulty kept from cheering the march of the British through the streets as they tramped down to the shipping to embark for England.

At the foot of famous Broadway stood Fort George, named for the British king and from its tall staff floated the flag which the enemy had left behind.

It flapped in the breeze of that November day in a manner quite distasteful to the Americans who had seen it waving there for seven years. They didn't like the thought that it was to float on even after the British soldier had vanished down the bay, and when Gen. Knox and his troops took formal possession of Fort George, all eyes were turned toward that obnoxious ensign.

It must come down, but how? The patriots did not want to destroy the tall flag staff, for they wished to hoist upon it another flag which would represent the newest republic on the face of the globe, and so they gathered about the staff as they suggested means for lowering the British flag.

The English vessels were vanishing down the narrows, and their white sails would soon disappear, but there in the wind waved the flag they had left behind bidding defiance to their conquerors, and saying in mute language that, tho' the colonies were free, the emblem of a king still remained to disturb them.

"I believe I could climb that pole," said a boy who stood looking at the flag.

An American officer, overhearing these words, turned and gave him a look of astonishment.

He was a good-looking boy, with a fresh face, and strong, young limbs.

"You do?" said the officer. Do you really think you could climb that flag staff and tear the banner loose?"

"I could try, anyhow."

"Here, sergeant, take this boy over to Gen. Knox, and let him tell what he thinks he can do."

A continental sergeant stepped forward, and in a little while Johnny Van Arsdale was walking at his side towards Gen. Knox's headquarters.

The boy had seen the chief of Washington's artillery, but had never been in his presence.

The sergeant took the lad to the general's headquarters and saluted.

"This boy says he can climb the flag staff and remove the British flag."

The kind face of Knox was illumined by a smile. He looked the boy over from head to foot and said:

"You look agile, boy. You have climbed before, have you?"

"Yes, sir, replied Johnny, blushing. "If you would let me try to take the flag down I would do my best."

"You shall try, and you look capable of doing it," and with another salute the sergeant withdrew and marched the delighted boy back to the parade ground.

The crowd gathered about the flag staff, looked at the boy, and soon understood what was up. A great many of them knew him, and not a few knew how agile he was.

Not only had the departing British nailed their flag to the pole, but they knocked out the cleats and greased the staff so as to make it hard to climb. New cleats were soon obtained, and Johnny Van Arsdale went to work. He had brought with him a lot of sand and by nailing back the cleats and applying the sand to the slick pole, he managed to climb up hand over hand amid the cheers of the people.

Higher and higher he went, working like a beaver, but not looking down once upon the up-turned faces.

As he neared the top of the flag pole, a strange hush seemed to fall over the crowd below. It was expectation, not altogether unmixed with fear. There were those who feared that even should he reach the top his hands would not be strong enough to tear the flag loose; but the little patriot persevered until he could touch the ensign.

"Look! he is up now," said a voice far beneath him. "He has caught hold of the flag. He is tearing it loose! There! See how it yields! He will accomplish his purpose!"

The boy looked like a black speck, as it were, as he clung to the flag pole, while he wrenched the flag from its fastenings.

He worked with a will, watched all the time by those on the ground, and when they saw that he had wrapped the standard around his body and had started upon his descent, a great cheer arose from every throat.

Lower and lower he came, hand over hand, but with a flush of victory on his face. The banner flapped a little in the wind now, but its freedom was subdued. No longer it kissed the winds from the pinnacle of the lofty staff, nor was it nailed there in defiance to the Colonies.

Louder than ever was the cheer that rent the air when the triumphant boy reached the ground and unwrapped from his body the wind-torn banner which he had secured.

"I told the general I thought I could bring it down," he said to the officer, who stepped forward to take the captured banner.

In another moment he was hemmed in by a wildly shouting crowd, and strong men took him upon their shoulders and carried him in ecstasy across the parade ground.

It was a moment of proud triumph for

"OLD MOTHER ANN."

Mother Ann, which has become so prominent a feature of the natural scenery of Cape Ann, was discovered during the summer of 1891 by Capt. Wm. H. Thompson of Salem, a summer resident of East Gloucester. The figure is located at the extreme end of East Gloucester, Eastern Point, and near Eastern Point lighthouse.

Old Mother Ann is visited by hundreds of people daily and the scenery at this point is especially attractive.

The above cut is a reproduction from a sketch from the pen of Alexander Tupper, the East Gloucester artist.

A TRUE AMERICAN LAD

the little patriot and his pride increased when Gen. Knox sent to thank him for his daring act.

In a little while another flag floated from the flag staff of Fort Orange; but it was not the standard of the king. It was the Stars and Stripes of the young nation which had secured its right to have a flag by seven years of war; and when Johnny Arsdale saw the other banner waving gracefully from the flag staff his eyes lit up with joy.

"It's the prettier flag of the two. Long may it wave!" he cried.

And while it floated there the last British vessel vanished and New York held no soldiers but those who would henceforth occupy it.

John Van Arsdale lived a good many years after his daring act in lowering the British flag, and more than once he was compelled to relate to groups of children how he took it down from its lofty height and saw the banner of freedom take its place.

Thus was the British flag, raised by men, taken down by a boy whose name and deeds the pages of American history have kept alive even unto this day.

ACCIDENT

Miss Helen Grose, youngest daughter of Rev G R Grose, pastor of First M E Church of Lynn, met with a painful accident on July 4, falling out of a swing and cutting a deep gash in her forehead. Dr. Davis took three stitches in the wound. It is thought no scar will be left.

Patriot's Day at the Grove

"O what is so rare as a day in June
Then, if ever, come perfect days."

James Russell Lowell

This might have been said of June 17, for it was a perfect day, and many visitors came to Asbury Grove. Wesley M. E. Sunday School held their yearly picnic, coming in three special cars, and having a most enjoyable time.

Among those present were:

Mr. H. A. Jaquith, sons Archie and Henry A, Jr., and daughter Nellie of Lynn.

Miss Lizzie Smith of Medford.

Mr and Mrs Walter Small of Gloucester who came Tuesday, June 12.

Lynn's Old-Home Week Celebration

Lynn's Old-Home Week Celebration takes place July 28 to August 3, and the week's program will open, according to the usual custom, with special religious services in the churches.

There is to be a Civic Day, with an elaborate parade and other features that will illustrate the growth of the city; a Merchants' Day, devoted to an exposition of Lynn's mercantile facilities; a Women's Day, set apart in honor of the splendid women who have done their share in building up the Twentieth Century Lynn; a Children's Day, replete with entertainments for the little folks, and a Manufacturers' Day, dedicated to the organized industries that have helped to lift the city in five years from fifth to second place in the list of Massachusetts industrial cities.

In connection with this latter phase of the celebration, there will be a notable Industrial Exhibit, which is calculated to impress the most casual visitor with the fact that Lynn is today the shoe city of the world. This exhibit, appropriately enough, will be held in the world's largest shoe factory—the great eight-story Vamp Building—which of itself is one of the sights of the city.

Other interesting features will be an arts and crafts and floral exhibit, under the auspices of the women of the city; an exhibit of school work; organ recitals, band concerts, ball games and other sports, a Marathon race, motor boat, yacht and Swampscott dory races; receptions and reunions under the auspices of the leading clubs and associations, daily receptions at City Hall by the mayor and the heads of departments, afternoon teas, and a municipal parade.

In addition to all this, there will be a magnificent illumination of High Rock, the famous elevation of the city, which will be visible for miles around, an illumination of the City Hall and other public buildings and a beautiful electrical fountain.

A special feature will be made of "Seeing Lynn" trips by trolley, automobile and carriage. The parks and boulevards of Lynn and vicinity are very attractive, its Shore Drive being especially beautiful, and the Lynn woods—a most delightful forest area—is the second largest city park in the country.

There are many other things in and around the city of contemporary or historic interest, including the great plants of the General Electric Company, one of which has the two tallest chimneys in the State.

In Lynn not only did the making of shoes in the new world begin, but here was located the first iron foundry in America, and the first iron utensils were cast, the first coins made and the first fire engine constructed.

Within a short ride are Nahant, with its rocky shores; Swampscott, with its fine beaches; Saugus, to have its Old-Home Week celebration, July 28-Aug 3; Beech Bluff; historic Salem; picturesque Marblehead; and beyond it the famous and beautiful Cape Ann section.

The view from High Rock, on which the city has erected an observation tower, is one of the finest in that part of Massachusetts.

The Industrial Exhibit in connection with the Lynn celebration will doubtless attract to the city many shoe dealers and manufacturers from different parts of the country. The latch-string will be out for these, as well as for the returning former residents of the city.

Special seals emblematic of the city's industries and attractions have been issued. One has the words "Lynn Old-Home Week, July 28 to August 3, 1907. Warm Welcome to All." In the centre is High Rock Observatory, with the words "Old High Rock" and in the left-hand corner a SHOE.—Boston and Maine Messenger.

PICNIC

The Marblehead M. E. Church picnic took place July 17. About 120 came in two special cars from Marblehead at 9 a. m., reaching the Grove at 11 a. m. A basket lunch was served in the circle. Walks and social chat made the hours pass pleasantly. They left for home about 6 p. m.

Orange Pudding.

Peel and slice five oranges, cover with 1-2 cup sugar. Let stand. Take about a quart of milk, pinch of salt, let it come to a boil, then add the yolks of 3 eggs well beaten and 1-2 cup of sugar. Let it cook until thick, then pour over oranges. Then beat the white to a stiff froth and add them. Brown in oven.

Saturday, May 18, Field day of the Biological Club of Boston Normal School. They were guests of their teacher Miss Laura S. Plummer at the Plummer cottage on Essex Avenue.

Call to the Old Home

GOV. CURTIS GUILD, JR., of Mass., who is president of the State Association and takes a deep interest in the Old-Home Week movement, has issued the following cordial invitation to all absent former residents of the Bay State to return to their old homes during the week of July 28—Aug 3:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Executive Department,
BOSTON, June 10, 1907.

To the Sons and Daughters of Mass.:—

The Commonwealth, always interested in the fortunes of her children who wander abroad, as well as those who sit by her firesides, particularly desires to call them to the old home during the week extending from July 28 to Aug 3. Special arrangements have been made this year to make the home coming even more delightful than usual.

Let every city and town in the Commonwealth be prepared to give a hearty welcome to those who return to the ancient landmarks. Let the hospitality of Massachusetts, always gracious, be overflowing in greeting to our own.

May all be made to feel that the old Commonwealth is indeed a good home, a happy place in which to spend a life, a fortunate place in which to seek a living, a place of opportunity and resourcefulness a field for investment and for enterprise.

Rich in historic tradition, and with a noble past, Massachusetts welcomes her guests, old and new, to no abandoned farms nor settlements in ruins, but to a land whose noble memories have proved the inspiration to a modern, hopeful and progressive Commonwealth.

Obituary

Miss Lydia A Dodge died very suddenly on the morning of April 29th after an illness of a few hours. She rose Sunday morning, apparently in her usual health and had made preparations for attending church as was her invariable custom. As she was putting on her hat preparatory to leaving the house she was seized with a severe pain, so sharp and sudden as to render breathing difficult and she sank into a chair, where she was found in an unconscious condition. After a few moments she revived and was helped to her room physician and nurse being summoned.

Miss Dodge remained quiet through the day and passed a fairly comfortable night, but early in the morning the heart failed and in an hour sank peacefully to rest. The end came a few moments later, at 6 o'clock.

Miss Dodge was the youngest daughter of the late Manning Dodge, and was born in Ipswich 66 years ago. Miss Dodge was the youngest of a large family, but is survived by one sister, Mrs John A Perkins of Green street. In early life Miss Dodge united herself to the Methodist Church, to which she was devoted and loyal to the last day of her useful life. She was of a quiet, gentle disposition; intelligent, well-read, womanly, and given to generous and helpful deeds. She will be greatly missed in church and Sunday school, as well as in home and other circles.

"And so He giveth His beloved sleep" was the thought of many who looked for the first time on the peaceful face of Miss Lydia A Dodge, whose funeral service was held Wednesday afternoon from her late home on Meeting-house green. The house was filled with relatives, friends, co-workers in church and Sunday school, old schoolmates and many others being in the throng. Rev Mr Woods, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted the service, reading as the opening sentences those words of comfort, "I am the resurrection," The service included not only the word of Holy Writ, but also the reading of two most appropriate selections, "Good Women," and "Thou and I." A few words of eulogy were spoken chiefly in reference to the industry and usefulness of the life so suddenly ended. No fulsome flattery was uttered, but beautiful reference was made to the fact of her being in the act of preparing for attendance at church when she was called from the church militant to the church triumphant. Prayer and benediction closed the service. Mrs. Harriet Gove Shaw sang in a most tender way three favorite hymns of the deceased, who

Asbury Grove Notes

The June meeting of the Asbury Grove Corporation was held Thursday, June 13 at Treasurer Leonard's cottage on Pleasant avenue. President Bates presided. There was a large attendance. The Association had dinner with their families at the cafe.

The Daughters of Rebekah, No. 5, of Ipswich, held their annual outing here Thursday, June 13. The Atkinson-Howe cottage on Mudge avenue was made their headquarters and they were the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Boynton. The party spent a most enjoyable day. There were between thirty and forty present, including guests from Beverly and Salem, also several happy children.

Rev and Mrs R P Walker and family came to the Grove April 6, and will remain at their cottage, 9 Essex avenue, for the season.

Messrs Cobb, Emmons and Oakes with their wives and Mrs Hathaway have arrived home from Jacksonville, Florida—where they have been passing the winter.

Wesley Church Picnic

The annual picnic of the Wesley M. E. Sunday School was held at Asbury Grove, June 17. Three car-loads arrived about 10.30 a. m. The ladies made their headquarters at the Norton cottage on Asbury avenue. The young folks congregated near the tennis court on Morris avenue, where the young men and boys had a very interesting ball game, while the young ladies amused themselves in playing "Duck."

At noon all met in the circle where a very enjoyable hour was had in partaking of a lunch. Hot coffee was served by the committee in charge. During the afternoon a very interesting ball game was played on the ball field. The teams were made up of members of the Sunday School. The ladies and younger folks amused themselves with potato races, games and swings. About 4.30 p. m. all left for home, having had a day of unalloyed enjoyment.

Celebrations

Two old residents of the Grove, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stetson of Roxbury, opened their cottage June 15, it being the birthday of Mrs. Stetson and the anniversary of the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Joslin, whose family is occupying the Capt. Small cottage. The event was very pleasantly noted by a dinner at the cottage of Mrs. Joslin, accompanied by the elder daughter, Mrs. L. W. Adams.

An Enjoyable Entertainment

Saturday evening, July 13, a concert was held in the Tabernacle under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. The artistes were Mrs. Marshall and her two daughters, Misses Edith and Ethelyn.

The entertainment was opened by a duet on the Swiss silver bells by the Misses Marshall with piano accompaniment, which was followed by Miss Edith Marshall, who played several well known selections on the sleigh bells. Miss Ethelyn then read a selection entitled "The Fiddle Told," after which her sister appeared in a Japanese costume and sang several Japanese songs, which were loudly applauded. viol, Then Miss Edith with the bass

Miss Ethelyn with the musical lyre, and Mrs. Marshall on the piano rendered several selections which pleased the audience greatly. Miss Edith impersonated a girl, who, at the graduation, was endeavoring to give an address, during which several remarks were made by the speaker, which furnished much amusement for the audience. The concluding number was a second selection on the Swiss silver bells.

The entertainment was successful in every particular, as over 250 people were present. The lady artistes were so charmed with the Grove that they desired to remain here all summer. A B was very fond of music. The selections were "My Jesus, as Thou wilt," Mendelssohn's "Abide with me," and Agness Buck's "Angel voices," the latter being especially beautiful.

The body lay in a casket, whose dark gray broadcloth was almost wholly concealed by a wealth of roses, pinks and violets. The same beautiful blossoms were massed upon the mantel and heaped upon tables and floor in great profusion, a profusion most fitting for one who dearly loved any blossom that grew. Conspicuous among the many tributes were those from the Ladies' Aid society, the Sunday school, her own Sunday school class, the firm of Millett & Woodbury, Beverly, where for years Miss Dodge was employed, and also the employes in the stitching room at the same factory. A large number of friends passed by the casket for a last look at the dear face, before it was borne away to its resting place in the old North cemetery.—Salem Gazette.

Mrs. Ida (Norwood) Day, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Israel Norwood of Highland St., Hamilton, just outside of Asbury Grove, and wife of Mr. Alonzo Day of East Gloucester, died May 6, of typhoid fever. She was buried from the East Gloucester church.

Besides her husband, sons and daughter, she leaves two brothers and two sisters to mourn her early departure.

She was one of the most active members of the East Gloucester M. E. church and will be greatly missed.

She was a constant visitor to Asbury Grove for many years.

Little William Oliver Turpin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm E. Turpin of Lynn, died from heart failure at the cottage 14 Mt. Zion Avenue, May 28, at the age of 2 mos., 20 dys. Rev. Ralph Gillam conducted the funeral services May 31.

John M. Nichols, a resident of Somerville for the past eighteen years, died early Monday morning, June 10, at his home 13-B Vinal Avenue. Wednesday, June 5, Mr. Nichols, who has been engaged in the express business for the past thirty years in Boston, while driving his team, was run into by another team, and to save himself from being killed, as he thought, jumped from the seat of the wagon to the street. The jar which resulted from the jump was so serious as to induce kidney trouble, which caused his death, after several days of severe suffering, followed by brain trouble.

He was born in Townsend, Vt., and when eighteen years of age, came to Boston. Previous to removing to Somerville, he resided in Charlestown. He was a devoted Christian and an active member of the First Methodist church where he had been a class leader. He leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Augusta A. Gay, and to whom he was married in Charlestown forty-seven years ago. Of the three children born to the couple, two died in infancy and their only remaining child, Miss N A. Nichols, passed away seven years ago, after being tenderly cared for in her long sickness of four years' duration by her parents. Mrs. Nichols, now in feeble health, has the sympathy of many friends in her sudden bereavement. Mr. Nichols was sixty-nine years of age. He was a member of Co. C., Fifth Artillery, (Martin's battery) during the civil war.

The funeral services were held Thursday June 13, at 2 p. m. Rev W. E. Perrin, a former pastor of the deceased in Charlestown, officiated. George Sargent and C. E. Keniston sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "The Homeland." The American flag enfolded the casket which was covered with many floral emblems, including offerings from the Tuesday evening class of the First M. E. Church, also the Sunday School class of the deceased and the Brooks manufacturing company. The burial was at Wildwood cemetery, Winchester.—Somerville Journal.

Mr. Louis Jones Magee, son of the late James P. Magee, manager of the Methodist Book Depository of Boston, died in New York city, July 3, at the age of forty-four years. Mr. Magee was a graduate of Wesleyan University class of 1885; had for years been prominent in electrical affairs; was intimately related to the merger of the great electrical companies in Germany; built the first electric tram road in Europe; and at the time of his death was the expert representative in the United States of the electric companies of Germany, and of the General Electric Company of the United States in Europe. He was a poet of superior ability and a man of the highest general culture. He had from boyhood been a member of the Centre Methodist Episcopal Church in Malden. Aside from the brother mentioned, he leaves a widow, the daughter of the late Henry Brainard Kent, of New York, a mother, sister, and younger brother. The funeral service was held from the home where he was born, in Malden, on Friday, July 5. Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, D. D., and Rev. John R. Shannon, D. D., officiated.

Mrs. Eliza, (Hoegg) widow of the late Obediah George of Cambridgeport, died in Somerville, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Short, Nov. 4, 1906, of heart failure.

She left two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Short of Somerville, and Mrs. Frank Noyes of Cliftondale, also two grandchildren. Dr. Pickles, the present pastor of St. Paul's church, Lynn, conducted the funeral services, Wednesday, Nov. 7.

She had been a constant visitor to Asbury Grove for over twenty-five years and people loved to visit her cottage.

Personal Items

Rev Frederick H Knight D. D., president of New Orleans University, has been elected superintendent of the "Home for Little Wanderers" in this city, and will enter upon the duties incumbent upon the important position, August 1.

He is a son of New England, born and educated here, and beginning his work in the ministry among us. He has been for six years the successful president of New Orleans University.

Mrs. and Miss Butler are expected to arrive on the "Saxonia" at Boston, August 3, and will spend that month with Mrs. Thurber, secretary of the N. E. Southern Conference. Miss Butler writes from England, June 14: "Mother is very happy in the scenes of her childhood. England is very beautiful now with its hawthorne hedges all blossomed in pink and white, and the Aredelia roses with their fragrance, but nothing which looks quite so fair as the homeland, if God will grant us the blessing of a return to you all."

Mr. Arthur R. Curnick, son of Edward T. Curnick, D. D., pastor at Clinton, Mass., received, on June 20, a bronze medal as a prize for the best essay on the subject of "Civil Service Reform." The prize was given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Civil Service Reform Movement. The competitors were all members of the Clinton High School. The essay will be exhibited at the Jamestown Exposition. This will appear in the August Mentor.

Miss Laura Owen Rice was married to Prof. Wm Grant Seaman of De Pauw University, on Friday, June 28, at 3 p. m. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home in Newton, by her father, Rev Chas F Rice, D. D., assisted by Prof. William North Rice of Wesleyan University. Mr. and Mrs. Seaman will be at home after Oct 1st, at Greencastle, Ind.—Zion's Herald

GAS --- PROVERBS

GAS is lighter than air and inclines upwards; the price, however, has tended downward until it is now 85c.
 ALWAYS settle gas bills by the tenth of the month and get the discount.
 SATISFACTORY results in cooking can be obtained better by gas than by any other method. Gas
 SAVES labor, money and much work for the fire department.
 TWELVE dollars will buy a gas range not inferior to the best in the market.
 OIL and Gasoline are responsible for 50 per cent. of fire casualties.
 VALUABLE time is often wasted on a coal fire when a gas stove would do the work in a few minutes.
 EVERYTHING considered, we advise everybody to use gas for cooking and heating, and electricity for light and for power.
 SAVE money and do business with us.

A Camp Meeting Remedy

WHAT TO DO. You are liable to a process of inflammation when summering at your Grove. If the weather is damp and rainy you are susceptible to colds, more particularly Sore Throat, Laryngitis and acute Colds in the Chest, which may be followed by Pneumonia, Pleurisy and Bronchitis. ANTI-ITIS, as its name denotes its use to you, applied to any part of the body that is inflamed, covered with cotton batting oiled silk or paper and a bandage will restore the inflamed part to its natural state. The oiled silk or paper prevents the exudation that the ANTI-ITIS draws out from passing through the bandage but holds it in the cotton.

If you should injure yourself by falling on a stump causing black and blue-ness ANTI-ITIS applied removes the black and blueness, prevents the swelling and restores the inflamed surface to its natural state in five to ten to twenty four hours.

For Sprains ANTI-ITIS should be applied warm and changed every few hours. For sore Feet apply ANTI-ITIS at night covered with cotton batting and a sock. For Insect Bites, such as mosquitoes, etc., ANTI-ITIS applied prevents the pain, swelling and redness. Why? It cools, soothes and draws. Remember that ANTI-ITIS can be applied to the most delicate skin as it does not irritate but has cooling, soothing and drawing action wherever it is applied.

Your store at the Grove will supply you with ANTI-ITIS and a book, WHAT TO DO, describing the use of ANTI-ITIS and an Accident Chart.

ANTI-ITIS is a home remedy for all as inflammation is the first noticeable cause that is present in all diseases to which the human flesh is subject.

ANTI-ITIS means Anti-Inflammation and is the antidote for inflammation

ANTI-ITIS is prepared in our laboratory in Massachusetts where nothing else is manufactured and is offered to you as the only preparation for all home use. It is the highest grade preparation registered under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Serial Number 3066 Never accept a package unless the word ANTI-ITIS is stamped on the bottom of the can.

ANTI-ITIS is put up as follows:—
1-2lb 25c; 1lb 50c; 1 3-4lb 75c; Hospital size.

August—A month of bargains at the A. B. & W. Store—Salem

Residents of the Grove this month will find many bargain opportunities to attract them at the big department store of Almy, Bigelow and Washburn's,
Salem, Mass.

Just at this season, mid-summer stocks have become more or less broken and it is this firm's established custom to close them out regardless of cost. A chance for the thrifty woman shopper to pick up many a splendid bargain is now offered in nearly every department.
Especially true will this be found among the ready-to-wear garments and all articles of dress. An occasional trip to the A. B. & W. store from now on will prove most profitable to all those who wish to make a substantial saving on reliable up-to-date merchandise for the home and dress.

Purchase Law for Women

It should be a violation for any dealer to present any one asking for an article with an imitation, for everything today is an imitation. One woman imitates another.

ANTI-ITIS is the only preparation that is not an imitation as a household remedy.

Inflammation is recognized by heat, redness, pain and swelling. Any disease that produces sickness, whether internal or external, has to pass through the process of inflammation. The name

ANTI-ITIS denotes its use, as it subdues all forms of inflammation. For summer ailments, such as sore fingers, boils, burns, sprains, bruises, etc.

ANTI-ITIS cools, soothes and absorbs the swelling on all inflamed tissues and converts the inflamed part back to nature's function.

Price of ANTI-ITIS : 1-2 lb. 25c., 1 lb.

INSURANCE and REAL ESTATE

We will insure your Cottage at ASBURY GROVE for three years at a cost of $2.00 per $100. of Insurance. We advise insuring your summer property to the full amount of value, for if a fire gets a good start it will undoubtedly mean a total loss. Insure now and be protected.

Historical Sketch of Asbury Grove

CAMP MEETINGS originated in the South, probably in the State of Kentucky, by the accidental evangelistic tour of two brothers, one a Presbyterian and the other a Methodist, through several of the middle Southern States. In a little monogram, written by Rev William B Gorman, a member of the Wyoming Conference, from which the above facts are taken, the necessary requisites for a successful camp meeting are stated. They are chiefly: (1) Union among all the preachers; (2) the absolute leadership of the presiding elder; (3) the best preaching possible.

Now the history of Asbury Grove is precisely, during at least most of its past, a vivid illustration of these requisites. If not the earliest, it has been one of the most successful of the New England camp meetings. It was established because of a widespread dissatisfaction with the expense, peril and inconvenience of reaching the ground at Eastham. For many years previous to 1858, this dissatisfaction had been brooding over the northeastern section of Massachusetts Methodism.

In the Boston preachers' meeting, on December 6, 1858, Rev L R Thayer introduced a series of resolutions. In November, 1858, in company with Revs E O Haven, C L McCurdy, J W Dadmun, M S Howe, N S Gould and S A Cushing, he had visited several groves in Essex County. The resolutions, among several other minor matters, recommended the calling of a convention "to be held at an early day, to consist of the pastors and delegates from the several churches that may be interested." The committee appointed, on the unanimous adoption of the resolutions, to call and provide for the holding of this convention were: I Smith, I S Cushman, L R Thayer, J W Dadmun, C L McCurdy, L Crowell and W H Hatch.

On the morning of Jan. 3, 1859, the convention met in the Bromfield Street church. Its officers were: President, Rev L Crowell of Lynn; vice presidents, R G Usher of Lynn, and Josiah Brackett of Charlestown; secretary, Rev W R Bagnall of Boston. Members of the Millennial Grove Association and the committee of twenty-one appointed at the Eastham camp meeting were courteously invited to sit in the convention and to participate in its deliberations. Previous to this there had been a thorough discussion of the whole matter at Eastham, the outcome of which was the appointment of the committee of twenty-one. Mr N D Rich of Roxbury endeavored to postpone the action of the convention until this committee should act, but his efforts failed by the report of the preparatory committee on resolutions being introduced with suddenness. This committee, L R Thayer, David Snow, A D Waite, W R Clark and S C Cox, offered a long series of resolutions. David Snow seems to have been the only member of the committee who objected. These resolutions were accepted with only one amendment.

The third and chief resolution of the series advised the appointment of a ministerial and lay committee with full power "to select and secure, by lease or otherwise, a suitable grove in the eastern part of the Lynn District, prepare such grounds as far as they may be able for the purposes of a camp meeting and with the consent of the presiding elders of Boston and Lynn Districts, cause a camp meeting to be held there the next summer or autumn."

Pursuant to the purpose of the resolutions, a committee of one from each church represented in the convention, was chosen to nominate a committee from the Lynn and Boston Districts who should have full power. This committee were M Daggett, Bromfield Street; E F Porter, Meridian Street; N K Skinner, Hedding Church; J Noble, Bennington Street; A D Merrill, Mt. Bellingham, Chelsea; N D Rich, Roxbury; R W Allen, First Church, also A Binney, Second Church, Dorchester; I Smith, Harvard Street, Cambridge; David T Huckings, Watertown; C Baker, Somerville; E A Manning, Waltham; J A Ames, Woburn; W A Braman, Medford; D Steele, Malden; E O Haven, Maplewood; E O Phinney, Melrose; G R Bent, North Reading; Alvah Philbrook, Saugus; R G Usher, Common Street, Lynn; Thomas Breare, Marblehead; A Cushing, Town Parish, also N O Soule, Harbor; Gloucester; G Sutherland, Topsfield; A D Waite, Ipswich; J Smith, Liberty Street, also Asa Davis, Purchase Street, Newburyport. The names of the other members of the committee were not obtainable.

This committee made up another committee, lay and ministerial, with full power to act. The Lynn District was represented by such laymen as William Sias of Cambridge, John S True of Newburyport, A D Waite of Ipswich, J W Sweat of Lynn and H J Adams of Lowell. The Boston District was represented by Austin Gove and N K Skinner of Boston, Lee Claffin of Hopkinton, M A Rice of Newton and John Bent of Chelsea. The clergymen were Revs. I J P Collyer, M Dwight, L R Thayer, E O Haven and N A Soule.

This committee did their work well. They were appointed on January 3, 1859, and in the latter part of March they met at the house of Mr. J Dodge in Hamilton, after having paid a visit to the beautiful grove which was near by. It is said that Rev. L R Thayer was the first member of the committee to leap the snake-rail fence which separated the grove from adjoining land. The committee at that meeting did not decide upon the grove. It impressed them, however. They voted to adjourn for a week to meet again at the Common Street Church, Lynn. And they only agreed by vote to hold the camp meeting in the Hamilton grove "for the present."

The next meeting at the house of J Dodge, Hamilton, was held April 27, 1859, when the name of Asbury Grove Camp Meeting Association was adopted. On the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill the committee met again in Boston. At this meeting it was voted "that the meeting for the present year commence on Monday, August 22, and close on Saturday following." The first camp meeting at Asbury Grove on the Sabbath did not occur until 1868.

Historical Sketch of the Grove

The first public meeting on the new ground was held on Sunday, August 22, 1859. The records say:

"The first public service in the grove commenced at 3 o'clock p. m. A large congregation (about 2000 persons), was in attendance on the occasion. Some thirty-five societies have tents on the ground, in most of which prayer and praise have already been heard. The services were conducted by Rev. Abram D Merrill in a characteristic and highly interesting manner. His sermon on "The Nature of Spiritual Worship" was highly appropriate and was listened to with attention and interest. The day was delightful and all were pleased and profited."

On Saturday, August 27, the meeting closed. The love feast at this first camp meeting in Asbury Grove was attended by thousands and many were hopefully converted.

Rev. C. L. Eastman, who has always been prominent in the affairs of the Association, says, however, that the first public service on the ground was held on Saturday, August 14, with preaching by Rev. Josiah Brackett,

The report of the treasurer, in the fall of 1859, shortly after the close of the first camp meeting, showed that the expenditures were $75.52 less than the total receipts, which were $1,377.44. More land was purchased, improvements continued, and in 1866 the "Barracks" were removed from the military camp ground at Hamilton and fitted up.

The Asbury Gleaners have labored for many years, not only in behalf of the interests of Asbury Grove, but of the general church, during which time the W. F. M. S. has been presented with about $3,700 or more, a sum contributed to the chapel fund, and put a memorial window in the chapel in honor of one of the original "Gleaners."

For many years there were no cottages on the ground. The first cottage was built by Mr. Reith of Salem, the second by Mr. Miller. Today there are about four hundred cottages on the ground.

In the early days, barges conveyed the people from Wenham to the grove. In 1870 the railroad ran direct to the grove, but was discontinued a few years since. The red depot was the scene of much pure enjoyment, the young people of the grove always celebrating the last run of the train after camp meeting. The horse cars followed the barges and today the Boston & Northern run their electrics direct to Asbury Grove.

The presidents of the Association since its beginning have been—E F Porter, Boston; T P Richardson, Lynn; James P Magee, Malden; James F Almy, Salem; Rev L B Bates, D D, of East Boston. The secretaries and treasurers have been Revs. L R Thayer, John G Cary, Jesse Wagner, C L Eastman, C E Davis, J M Leonard. Beside those already mentioned, the following ministers and laymen have been prominent in managing the interests of the association: I A Johnson, S Hyler, D Hall, I A Salmon, Gilbert Haven, W F Mallett, John G Cary, Jefferson Hascall, J W F Barnes, Joseph H Mansfield, J O Knowles, A D Sargent, L L Tarbell, L R S Brewster, G N Noyes, D S Simpson and W C High.

The Association was incorporated in 1890.—Thurston's History of East District, N E Conference.

Answered Last Roll Call

Mr. Daniel C. Donnell of Newburyport, died at the residence of his neice, Mrs. Harrington, in East Boston, Oct. 19, 1906. He left his home to visit the Food Fair, but thought he would first call on his neice, in East Boston. On his way to her residence he was taken suddenly ill, and lived but a short time after reaching her home.

He was born in Newburyport, Nov. 15, 1829, being 76 years, 11 months. He was a son of the late Fred W. Donnell. When a young man he went West, and at the breaking out of the Civil War, enlisted in the Second Iowa Infantry and served three years with credit. He was a member of Post 49, G. A. R., of Newburyport and was one of its most faithful members. Whenever an opportunity for service to the Post, or a comrade presented itself, Mr. Donnell was ever ready to respond. He was a pall bearer at the funeral of one of his comrades, Alfred Harrocks, Saturday, Oct. 13. He was unmarried and had lived to see all his family pass away with the exception of one nephew and two neices.

The body was brought to Newburyport, Saturday, Oct. 20, by Undertaker McKenney and Sunday afternoon, Oct. 21, a funeral service was held at his late home, 25 Prospect street. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. The members of Post 49 attended in a body and services was conducted by Rev. W. J. Kelly, of the People's M. E. church, of which he was a member, assisted by a quartette consisting of James W. Harvey, Dr. E. L. Noyes, Miss Jessie Jenkins and Mrs. Emma Adams Parker. The Grand Army burial service was conducted by Acting Commander Charles G Hayes, Chaplain John Burke, assisted by Past Commander James L. Bryant, Charles H Lewis and William C Cuseck.

The interment was in the family lot at Highland Cemetery and the following members of Post 49 were pall bearers: Paul A Perkins, Charles A Grant, James L Bryant and William H Pettingell. There were many floral tributes. He was a quiet, unassuming man.

He had been a summer visitor and cottage owner in Asbury Grove for many years, owning at the time of his death two cottages, one on Essex avenue formerly the Duchemin cottage, and the other on Pleasant avenue, opposite the Association store.

Mr. J R Keniston, Lynn, died at the Union Hospital, Jan. 11, 1907 He was born in Newburyport Nov. 19, 1822. He was a well known blacksmith of East Boston. His wife died about fifteen years ago. He leaves one son Dr J M Keniston of Portland, and one granddaughter, Mrs C P Bridges, wife of Evangelist Bridges of 22 Grove street, Lynn, with whom he resided, and five great grandchildren. He was in active business till 1905.

The funeral services were held from Rhodes Memorial chapel in Pine Grove cemetery, Monday, Jan 14, after which the body was carried to Newburyport and interred in the Belleville cemetery. He was a veteran of the Civil war, also a Free Mason, and a member of Mt Tabor Lodge of East Boston.

He was no stranger to Asbury Grove cottagers. He occupied a cottage on Kingsley avenue in 1906. When he left the Grove, he bade his friends "Good-bye" saying he probably would never come again."

B. D. ARMS & Co., of Malden, Mass., will conduct the Association store and endeavor to furnish a complete line of groceries, meats and vegetables at Boston prices.

NOTES

Rev Dr M V B Knox, of Stoneham, is booked to give a course of four lectures before the Boston University School of Theology on the "Four Great Revivals in English Religious Life"—first the Friars, second Wiclif's, third the Puritan, fourth Wesleyan. Date not fixed, but some time in the fall. Dr and Mrs Knox are spending a month's vacation at Glover, Vt

Harold Leonard Higgins, son of Rev James W Higgins of Chicopee, and Ralph Davis Leonard, son of Rev Joel M Leonard, presiding elder of Lynn District, received the degree of B A on Commencement Day at Harvard College. They both are among the score of youngest men in a class of four hundred and fifty, and both received honorable mention in the department of chemistry. Mr Higgins plans to teach next year and pursue further his work in chemistry. Mr Leonard completed his college course in three years, and has passed a year's work in the Harvard Medical School. Last December he received from the University an honorary scholarship for the excellent character of his work the previous year.

A very enjoyable outing was that on July 17, when over forty of the Ipswich people comprising Miss Amy Johnson's Sunday School class and the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church came to Asbury Grove. Miss Johnson gave them all a delightful time at her Hedding avenue cottage.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM

A Prize Essay by A. R. Curnick

At 11 o'clock, June 20th, the hall of the high school-house was filled by pupils of the school and friends, gathering to hear the result of the contest and listen to the reading of the successful paper, and other exercises. The event was opened by the school orchestra, after which Principal Keyes, with brief remarks, introduced Mrs. C. C. Stone, a member of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Massachusetts Civil Service Reform association, who alluded to the interest taken in this reform by the Women's club and to the incidents which had led up to this contest in Clinton, explaining the design of the medal. She said 32 medals had been already given out and other contests are pending.

The judges of the several essays were Principal Briggs, of the Lancaster high school, Mrs. Arthur E. Wilson and Amos T. Saunders. The name of the successful contestant, of the eight competitors, was then announced as Arthur R. Curnick, who was requested to come forward and read the paper, which he did amid hearty applause.

Subsequently Ora L. Stone was introduced as an alumnus of the school, who eloquently spoke of the worth, not of the leaders of the republic so much as of the common people, of the gems who were born to blush unseen, suggesting that the modest, quiet elements of the community are those who display the best citizenship and paying a compliment to the home keepers on whom rests so large a responsibility for the character of the men and women of future years, closing with practical advice and receiving hearty applause.

After music by the orchestra the session was closed. Below is the text of the prize essay:

When, centuries ago, with divine instruction the patriarch Moses placed on the tablet of Jewish law the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," he formed in the constitution of the ancient church an article necessary to its strength and completeness. Now, in our twentieth century of advancement, it again becomes needful for some agency of power to repeat the mandate, although on a far different platform, that of politics

Politics! What is this strangely new word? Webster says it is statesmanship. But does true statesmanship forget the commandment of honesty? No. Does politics pass it by with a scornful laugh? Oftentimes, yes. With hearts bound as by iron bands of greed and favoritism the "magistrates" of our decade often thinks of his duty to the estate as of secondary importance compared with the donations of public positions to his office-seeking friends.

That agency which is now speaking for justice in our political nation is the civil service reform movement. From the time of our war in 1861 this organization has been working for pure government, striving always in opposition to the "party machines" which are simply the intricate plans by which one party may fill all appointive offices with its adherents.

The main plank in the platform of the society is that an even chance be given to all aspirants for office whatever their party preference. What could appeal more strongly to the sense of liberty which is supposed to characterize the American people? I say "suppose," but I trust the word is not needed. May the time be far distant e'er the man of the stars and stripes will have lost this essence of a strong character.

In the first place, the fact is plainly evident that he who appoints at random hundreds of officers cannot but fill many positions with men entirely unfit for the specified work. With the plan of examination, however, this danger to the foundations of our country's government is removed and we find the man in the position which his qualities merit. He has reached his goal through ambition and successful application while the other has had a ripe plum of position handed him by some magnate and by one, too, who has not been slow to enter the garden of fame and fill his pockets with stolen fruit for his friends.

We often hear criticisms concerning the work of the reform movement, but what labor is not scorned by some of the ignorant public when its aim is for good? Even the teachings of the Bible are judged harshly by many, and if this collection of divine words is so considered what could we expect of the works of man? And yet these criticisms bring forth good. The weak places in the organization are always the first to be assailed, and thus these parts which need adjusting are brought to view and may receive attention. Therefore let the society except those rebukes with a half-smile of thanks and turn about, if necessary, to increase the usefulness of the criticised work.

And now a few words concerning the examination which applicants for offices in the service's control are required to take. Here criticism has been largely at work. It is said that the tests are simple, childlike affairs. Such questions as those which examine the applicant in grammar or arithmetic are certainly not needed by a man who is to tend a boiler or steer a ship, we hear the critic say. In fact the examinations are made to cover all points in which it is thought practical experience is needed, including the personal running of engines, and so forth, and containing indeed some of those more simple questions which are reckoned comparatively low in the final percentage. As to these lesser details may I ask the critic quoted above why the man who enters technical schools in our country are asked to take courses in languages and rhetoric? It is not always the mere knowledge of how to make a machine do its work that makes a man a master mechanic. It is rather he who is capable in time of needed self-control and general knowledge, and is prepared to meet the danger with a brain cultivated and exercised, that stands forth an honor to his profession.

Of how much use would a gunner be whose skill was confined to loading the instrument? A little, perhaps, should all the gunners crew be present. But let him who aims the gun be shot, of what use then? None. He is hands without knowledge, and equally true is it in political or general positions, that the man who has the most ready learning stored away in the caverns of memory is he who wears the most radiant crown of trust, is the man on whom anyone may rely.

There are three distinct directions towards which the work of the society should tend. First, the opening of the office doors to him who is not a spoke in the political wheel. In brief the emphasizing of each citizen's right to hold office. With such freedom I feel sure more applicants would appear and thus certainly better men would be chosen.

Secondly, the society should see that no laws are enacted which would endanger the rights of the public. "Civil Service Reform" surely includes a guarding of the just claims of the mass of the people. The people as a whole certainly need some agency to watch the construction of laws which when made bind them as bands of steel. Some work has been done along this line but continued efforts must be made to prohibit the wily enemies of honest government from forwarding their infamous schemes.

Thirdly, the society should continue its plans for better rule before the public. Along this line the society has been especially keen, for by competitions, literature and free lectures much more interest is being shown by the people at large in the work. The average voting man five years ago had heard of the organization but knew practically nothing of its plans. Now, however, by lectures in the public schools, the boy of the country is grasping the rudiments of the movement and will not be as easy a prey to the first "machine" representative who with gilded hands and sometimes other alluring means tries to guide his hands to the ballot box. It is a good advance in the right direction.

Thus the twentieth century advance brings need of unusual activity on the part of our friends foremost in the war for civic righteousness. Let them labor faithfully and in unity, and let the public stand by to help with willing hand. Then, perhaps, centuries ahead the American of the future may look back upon this season as that one in which the curse of "public stealing" was abolished from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. What a season of joy such an abolition would be! All hail to those who strive for it, and therefore to the "Civil Service Reform Movement!"

Entertainments at the Tabernacle

"A Trip to the Sunny South with Our Boys in Blue and Gray," was the subject of Rev Mr Adams address Thursday, July 18, at the Tabernacle, embracing some two hundred plain and colored views of places, battlefields, persons and scenes in army life. A running story of thrilling events of '61 to '65 was given; also incidents of his own trip in the very places where battles were fought. Fort-tress Munroe was visited and explained, also Petersburg, Southern navy yards, the National Capitol, Alexandria, Mount Vernon, Richmond, Norfolk, Wilmington were mentioned and very fine views shown. The views of the colored people as living in their homes and about their work were given. The lecture was full of historical incidents and anecdotes that showed real life in the South today and of the stormy days of the Civil War.

GAS - - - PROVERBS

GAS is lighter than air and inclines upwards; the price, however, has tended downward until it is now 85c.
 ALWAYS settle gas bills by the tenth of the month and get the discount.
 SATISFACTORY results in cooking can be obtained better by gas than by any other method. Gas
 SAVES labor, money and much work for the fire department.
 TWELVE dollars will buy a gas range not inferior to the best in the market.
 OIL and Gasoline are responsible for 50 per cent. of fire casualties.
 VALUABLE time is often wasted on a coal fire when a gas stove would do the work in a few minutes.
 EVERYTHING considered, we advise everybody to use gas for cooking and heating, and electricity for light and for power.

A Camp Meeting Remedy

WHAT TO DO. You are liable to a process of inflammation when summering at your Grove. If the weather is damp and rainy you are susceptible to colds, more particularly Sore Throat, Laryngitis and acute Colds in the Chest, which may be followed by Pneumonia, Pleurisy and Bronchitis. ANTI-ITIS, as its name denotes its use to you, applied to any part of the body that is inflamed, covered with cotton batting oiled silk or paper and a bandage will restore the inflamed part to its natural state. The oiled silk or paper prevents the exudation that the ANTI-ITIS draws out from passing through the bandage but holds it in the cotton.

If you should injure yourself by falling on a stump causing black and blueness ANTI-ITIS applied removes the black and blueness, prevents the swelling and restores the inflamed surface to its natural state in five to ten to twenty four hours.

For Sprains ANTI-ITIS should be applied warm and changed every few hours. For sore Feet apply ANTI-ITIS at night covered with cotton batting and a sock. For Insect Bites, such as mosquitoes, etc., ANTI-ITIS applied prevents the pain, swelling and redness. Why? It cools, soothes and draws. Remember that ANTI-ITIS can be applied to the most delicate skin as it does not irritate but has cooling, soothing and drawing action wherever it is applied.

Your store at the Grove will supply you with ANTI-ITIS and a book, WHAT TO DO, describing the use of ANTI-ITIS and an Accident Chart.

ANTI-ITIS is a home remedy for all as inflammation is the first noticeable cause that is present in all diseases to which the human flesh is subject.

ANTI-ITIS means Anti-Inflammation and is the antidote for inflammation

ANTI-ITIS is prepared in our laboratory in Massachusetts where nothing else is manufactured and is offered to you as the only preparation for all home use. It is the highest grade preparation registered under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. Serial Number 3066 Never accept a package unless the word ANTI-ITIS is stamped on the bottom of the can.

ANTI-ITIS is put up as follows:—
1-2lb 25c; 1lb 50c; 1 3-4lb 75c; Hospital size.

EDITORIAL

The season of 1907 at Asbury Grove has drawn to its close. Camp Meeting week was a delightful one; pleasant weather, for the most part, prevailed. A larger number of clergymen than has been entertained at the Hotel for many years were present. Harmony prevailed, and, although the season was backward, the Grove, on the whole, was kept in good order.

Many of the cottagers or their friends have passed over the river. The Asbury MENTOR publishes 21 obituaries this season, the last one to leave us being Charles Atkinson of Somerville, of whom no obituary was published.

Taylor Bros. have had all the trade they could handle. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard furnished good food, which was highly appreciated by the Grovites.

Mr. Peatfield came in for his share of the trade, as did also Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dodge.

In fact, Camp Meeting week seemed to require all these helpers, so that the people could be satisfied "in the inner man."

We hope another season, when the Fiftieth Anniversary will be celebrated, that we all shall meet—an unbroken band.

Early Fall Styles at Almy, Bigelow and Washburn's

The A. B. & W. store, Salem, Mass., is now ready to meet the demands for stylish wearing apparel for early fall wear.

In their second floor department they have a fine showing of handsome suits and coats, also an immense stock of new waists and skirts. If you are anticipating a purchase in these lines you will find styles and values extremely pleasing at the BIG STORE.

Everything new and desirable in dress accessories is delighting the many large throngs of shoppers daily to the various departments located on the first floor. New belts, bags, combs, veils, pins, neckwear, ribbons, gloves, hosiery, etc., are just a few of the many interesting articles which can be found at

Almy, Bigelow and Washburn's
Salem, Mass.

Purchase Law for Women

It should be a violation for any dealer to present any one asking for an article with an imitation, for everything today is an imitation. One woman imitates another.

ANTI-ITIS is the only preparation that is not an imitation as a household remedy.

Inflammation is recognized by heat, redness, pain and swelling. Any disease that produces sickness, whether internal or external, has to pass through the process of inflammation. The name

ANTI-ITIS denotes its use, as it subdues all forms of inflammation. For summer ailments, such as sore fingers,

Asbury Grove Camp Meeting, August 26 to September 2, 1907

Asbury Grove's forty-ninth annual Camp Meeting opened Monday, Aug. 26, and closed Monday, Sept. 2, 1906. Rev. Joel M. Leonard, D.D., Presiding Elder of the New England Conference, was in charge of the services of the week. Professor James E. Aborn was the Musical Director, and Edward Howe, Organist. Miss Alice E. Leith, the sweet singer, who was with us in 1906, was with us this year. Revival Hymns, edited by Towner and Alexander, was the singing book used. Miss Edith M. Waterman, Evangelist, had charge of the Junior Epworth League and the special meetings for girls. The Epworth League services were under charge of Rev. Donald Gerrish. Rev. Wilbur F. Chaffee had charge of the boys' meetings.

The weather was delightful. Labor Day was rainy, but a fair delegation of the Lynn District Epworth Leaguers, with invited guests from the Leagues of the East Boston and Cambridge Districts, were present.

Following is an account of each day's service, with the names of the preachers:

Monday, August 26

At 2.30 p. m. the regular camp meeting services opened in the Circle. On the platform were the chorus choir, with Prof. Aborn, the director, and organist Howe of Lynn. Presiding Elder Leonard had charge of the services. Among those on the platform were President L. B. Bates, D. D., Revs. A. M. Osgood, G. W. Mansfield, J. W. Ward, W. F. Lawford, R. P. Walker, M. E. Wright. The preacher was Rev. Elihu Grant; Ph. D., of East Saugus. Several clergymen were scattered through the audience, which was a fairly good one.

The meeting opened with praise by the chorus choir under Prof. Aborn and organist Howe, followed with remarks by Presiding Elder Leonard, who spoke of past camp meetings, and our work for God the coming week. A hymn was then sung. Rev. Elihu Grant read Isaiah LXIII and Dr. Lewis B. Bates offered prayer, closing with the Lord's prayer, in which all the congregation joined. Miss Alice E. Leith sang a solo. Dr. Leonard read the notices and hymn 17 was sung.

Rev. Elihu Grant now of Smith college, formerly of East Saugus, took for his text Psalm cxvi: 12. He said, "They who do not see the goodness of God, do not know God. God is not truly known unless we have passed through affliction. Our God is wonderfully good. The camel is called the 'ship of the desert,' because God has made it to be used as a means of uniting the different peoples who are separated by a desert. It has wonderful powers of endurance. Our God is never weary. He is the ever-working God. God is seeking the fellowship of his people. He lets us get a little glimpse of himself. 'What shall I render unto Jehovah for all his benefits toward me.' God's work cries for partnership. God is working for us incessantly. God help me to know that I am working alongside of the Master. God is our companion. He'll make us great through His companionship."

Presiding Elder Leonard made remarks. Singing "More about Jesus," followed. The meeting closed with a benediction by Rev. George W. Mansfield.

At 4.30 p. m. Rev. Wilbur Chaffee held a meeting for boys at the stand, which was well attended, and plans were made for the week.

At 6 p. m. meetings were held in several of the church buildings, which were most interesting.

The 7 o'clock service was held in the Tabernacle and opened with praise under Professors Aborn and Howe. Rev. L. W. Adams read the Scriptures, John i: 14, and offered prayer. Miss Leith sang a solo. After the collection and remarks by Presiding Elder Leonard, came singing and the preacher, Rev. Charles L. Leonard, D. D., of Pittsfield, preached from the text John iii: 18. "This word of the Lord has to do with all the great interests that are thrust upon us in an industrial community; with men and women who feel the great weight of the sin of the world. The peace of Jesus was not a peace of idleness, but of constant service. Just as certain as you degrade your nature, it will retaliate upon you. God means us to do our work well. Oh, the grinding struggle between capital and labor! When we believe that Christ came to save the world, then shall His cause move forward. We will see in the near future that duty is greater than pain. Does it hurt to feel souls tramping over you to the kingdom of God?" Singing followed. The preacher then invited all who believed in the power of Christ to save to come forward. A glorious altar service followed.

Tuesday, August 27

The 6 o'clock or sunrise service was led by Rev. A. M. Osgood of Charlestown. Text, Acts ii: 4. Subject, "Prepared Life. Prepared Way." Dr. L. B. Bates led in prayer. The doxology was sang at close.

The 8.30 o'clock services were held in several of the church houses, under selected leaders.

At 9 o'clock Miss Waterman led an interesting meeting for girls in chapel.

The 10 o'clock service was held at the Circle and opened with praise. Rev. J. M. Gage read the Scriptures and offered prayer. Rev. B. F. Kingsley spoke from 2 Cor v: 20, saying, "It is a great thing to be an ambassador. We are to be reconciled to God's Government. This will bring about a state of harmony. We are to be reconciled to God's Providence. God sends pain and trouble because he would have us live different lives, sometimes the trial of our faith. We will sing 'My God is reconciled,' if you truly believe it, but don't sing it if you don't believe it." Prayer was offered by Dr. L. B. Bates, the doxology was sung, and Rev. George Mansfield gave the benediction.

At 1.15 o'clock the Junior League met in the chapel, under charge of Miss Edith M. Waterman. A Welcome greeting was given to all. Miss Cora Merry gave a solo on the guitar. The subject was "My Pilot and His Chart." The Roll Call showed 86 children present.

The 1.15 Epworth League service was held in the Melrose building. Rev. Donald H. Gerrish had charge of the week's services. Rev. J. M. Gage gave the address. Miss Leith sang solos. Rev. Wilbur F. Chaffee led the singing. At the close Rev. D. H. Gerrish offered prayer, the hymn "Rescue the Perishing" was sang and Rev. W. G. Browning, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., gave the benediction.

At 2.30 the chorus choir opened the services with "Up from the Grave He Rose," Dr. Leonard following with remarks, and Dr. Perrin read selections from Matt xvi and John xii; prayer was offered by Rev. W. G. Browning, Miss Leith sang a solo, and after remarks by Dr. Leonard, and singing of hymn 216, those present had the pleasure of hearing the preacher.

Rev. L. J. Birney of Newton Center, who took for his text John xii: 27, 28 and 29.

He said first, that "All Apprehension or Comprehension of God's Truth Depends entirely upon a Man's Powers. God has placed in every man a faculty that he may recognize God's truth. A development of all capacities is necessary for the full comprehension of everything in the world. A full development of the spiritual faculty allows us to commune with the spiritual world. There is tremendous comfort which comes to the Christian who is fully developed in the spiritual faculty. If we neglect or spiritual faculty, atrophy sets in.

We have secondly, The Revelation of the Real Essence of Spiritual Culture. What is it that develops the spiritual nature of man? The spirit and motive of a man's life must be like the spirit and motive of Jesus Christ. Did you notice that, after Jesus had turned down all the temptations of the evil one, angels came and ministered unto him. Jesus said the great sin was human selfishness. How easy it is to lose the spirit of Christ out of our hearts. The reality of the spiritual world begins to die because the spirit of christianity dies out of our heart."

Rev W T Perrin of Melrose offered prayer; Miss Leith sang a solo. Presiding Elder Leonard was most tender in his closing remarks, saying "It is possible to get rich by scattering what we have. How awfully true it is that in the spiritual world there are people who have eyes to see but see not. If you have no vision just turn your sightless eyes to the Lord Jesus and he will give you spiritual sight. You may come to a place where you may say 'It is my meat and drink to do the will of God.'" A benediction closed this service, which was held in the Circle.

At 4.30 Rev W G Chaffee led a meeting for boys at the stand, his subject being "Daniel."

At 6 o'clock Dr Perrin led the meeting in Jesse Lee Hall, Evangelist Everts of New York, speaking on "Soul-Winning." Meetings were held in Jesse Lee Hall and other church buildings.

At 7 o'clock the meeting opened in the Tabernacle with praise, followed with remarks by Presiding Elder Leonard; Scripture Reading, Joshua xxiv, by Rev E C Bridgham; prayer, then "The Glory Song" was sung and the collection taken; Dr Leonard made remarks; Miss Leith sang a solo.

Rev A H Nazarian preached a powerful sermon from Joshua xxiv: 15, "Choose you this day whom you will serve." The first message here is "Choose." This text embraces human responsibility. Christ said choose—they were not to serve two masters. Man is free to choose. God puts my destiny in my own hands. Daniel Webster said that the greatest thought that came to him was his responsibility to God. God himself cannot make you virtuous against your own will. It is because you choose. We cannot blame earth. We cannot blame heaven. Every individual is responsible for his own salvation. If you wish to get the most out of life, choose Christ and follow Him. Now, if you will make a full and complete surrender to Jesus, stand up." A large number arose.

Wednesday, August 28

The 6 a m meeting at the stand was led by Otis Chase of Boston. His subject was "Faith."

At 8.30 Rev J W Ward held a meeting at the Salem house, Dr Perrin at the Melrose house, Rev A H Nazarian at Mt Bellingham.

At 9 o'clock a girl's meeting was held in the chapel under Miss Waterman; Miss Eaton was organist, Miss Bridgham, soloist.

The 10 o'clock service was held in the Circle. Glad voices rang out in the opening anthem "Holy, Holy, Holy," Presiding Elder Leonard opened the meeting; Evangelist Everts read the Scriptures and Rev C E Tilton offered prayer. Many were disappointed because Rev B F Jennings did not preach, but Evangelist Everts very kindly consented to fill the gap and preached from John xiv: 14 and 27. God left us His name; in the 27th verse he left us His peace; He left us the power of His blood. I want to speak to you on "Responsibility." From the days of Eve until the present time, humanity has always tried to lay the blame on some one else. God always works by human instrumentality. Ezekiel xxxii: 9, shows our responsibility. If you want the power to do personal work you must consecrate your life to Him. Used an illustration of a gas burner with a new mantle. If you will only let the mantle of the Holy Ghost come down on that little flickering light of yours. I want that blessed anointing power to come down upon my life that came down on the disciples at Jerusalem. See Acts ii. Jesus said in the upper room "Peace be unto you." Do you want it. Will you bow your head and ask Christ to open your heart and let the Holy Spirit come in. All bowed the head and several hymns were sung.

Remarks were made by Dr Leonard; hymn 26 was sung and Rev Alonzo Sanderson gave the benediction.

The Epworth League service was held at 1.15 in the Melrose house, Evangelist C L Everts, leader. Rev. Wilbur Chaffee spoke from 2 Timothy ii: 15.

Mrs Moody sang a solo. Evangelist Everts spoke on "Methods in Soul-Winning." The League marched to the Circle singing "The Glory Song."

At 1.15 the Junior League meeting in the chapel was under charge of Miss Edith Waterman. The subject was "Eddie's Prayer." About 30 boys and girls were present.

At 2.30 o'clock the service in Circle opened with praise. The Scriptures 1 Cor 15, were read by Rev J D Pickles. Hymn 78 was sung, after which prayer was offered by Rev George Mansfield, closing with the Lord's Prayer. Miss Leith sang a solo; Dr L B Bates said a few words, the collection was taken, Dr Leonard made a few remarks, and hymn 69 was sung.

Rev J D Pickles preached a powerful sermon from Acts iv: 33. He said, "The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the arch of Christian truth. There is Personal Testimony under which is the testimony of women, of Paul and Peter, of the ten disciples, of Thomas, of 500 brethren, of the great multitude on the day of Ascension. There is next, Character Evidence—the character of Jesus Christ, his disciples and Paul are shown by the testimony of the Resurrection. There is Doctrinal Testimony—if Christ be not raised 'your faith is vain'; 'ye are yet in your sins'; 'we are of all men most miserable.' But 'Christ is risen'. Last of all there is the Living Testimony of Today. As he revealed himself to Paul so he keeps revealing himself to every believing heart. He reveals himself to our heart as the living Saviour.

"Why have you come from your homes? Is it to listen to sermons about a dead Christ? No, to listen to words of a living Christ—Jesus Christ risen from the dead, who has the keys of death and hell. Forgiveness of sins is the great central truth of Christianity. The resurrection validates the whole contents of the Gospels. This New Testament is full of the emphasis of the fact that Jesus Christ has power on earth to forgive sins. Has it ever occurred that Jesus Christ is the only one who has a world sympathy. He is the son of humanity. He took not on him the nature of angels, but the seed of Abraham'. Brother of every man. The only human teacher that has come into the world with a world purpose. He touches the whole world and touches every human life; He goes everywhere and reveals himself to every soul that believes in Him. He is adapted everywhere and to all peoples and races of men, all testify to the same truth that Jesus Christ appears to every soul. The resurrection of Jesus Christ as a force is seen—In the Unveiling of Immortality. All other religions reveal man searching after God. This one reveals God searching after men. Socrates was asked when he drank the hemlock, 'Shall we ever see you again;' he answered 'I do not know—perhaps—I cannot tell.' The contrasting scene is the grave of Lazarus, where Jesus said 'I am the Resurrection and the Life.' Paul said, 'We know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle is,' etc; 'Oh, death, where is thy sting.' Jesus Christ has brought life and immortality to light and has abolished death. The resurrection of Jesus Christ embraces all the activities of the Christian church. What will you do with the living Christ? He seeks your sympathy and co-operation. I pray you hear the voice of the living Christ today and enroll yourself as his followers." A glorious altar service closed the afternoon's services.

At 4.30 Rev Wilbur Chaffee led the boys' meeting near the stand, his message being "Joseph". About 30 boys were present at the meeting.

At 6 o'clock, meetings were held in Jesse Lee Hall, Melrose and East Boston Bethel.

The 7 o'clock meeting was held in the Tabernacle and opened with praise under Profs Aborn and Howe. Dr Leonard made remarks, the Scriptures were read, prayer was offered by Rev H L Wriston, singing followed and then all present had the pleasure of listening to Rev G H Spencer of Everett.

The preacher took for his text John xiv: 6, "No man cometh unto the Father but by me." He said, "Jesus Christ is always a channel, never a dike. He is always a way, never a barrier. As the continents lie in the encircling seas, so man rests in God. As the waters of the ocean press upon all coasts, enter every bay and press upon all rivers; so the spirit of God presses about the life of man, enters every opened portal of his nature, and finds its way by all possible channels into his soul. Jesus Christ closes none of these openings. Every way God comes in. Every road leads to Him. Thus man's ethical nature is the avenue of the Divine approach. That man of science or of philosophy by intellectual processes learns of God. Others, it would seem, by direct spiritual intuition apprehend His presence.

But the knowledge one has of God is measured absolutely by the arc of his own moral or intellectual or spiritual nature. Does a man know the sea merely by tasting salt water and by watching the sluggish sides of a creek? Beyond man's thought of God as creator, ruler, and informing presence is Jesus' knowledge of Him as Father.

It is only literal truth of history and of experience that we have given in the words of Jesus, 'No man cometh unto the Father but by me.' The soul that cries ever for more in God than creator and ruler may find a Father but only through the Son.

Fatherhood means likeness. If God is not only maker and manager of men and their father too, then is possible communion between them and the answer in God's life to all the hopes and longings of man's life.

Fatherhood means love. All patience with mistakes and all promise of restoration are in love. This love is assured to him who cometh unto the Father. The way is open. The truth is revealed. The life is given. Let us come."

Miss Leith followed with one of her soul-stirring solos.

Thursday, August 29

The meeting at 6 a m was led by Rev Donald Gerrish. Subject, "Saul on his way to Damascus."

At 8.30 meetings were held in Melrose and Mt Bellingham houses, also in Wakefield house where Evangelist Evarts spoke to a large number.

A girl's meeting at 9 o'clock was held in the chapel, led by Miss Edith Waterman.

Miss Sarah H Howes of Lynn had charge of the flower decorations at the stand, furnishing them in loving memory of Wm H Hutchinson.

The 10 a m service opened with praise, with Scripture reading by Rev E M Antrim, Matt xxvii, and prayer by Rev Jesse Wagner; Miss Alice Leith sang a solo; Presiding Elder Leonard said "What a beautiful day God has given to us. This seems to be a heaven on earth. The only real flaw we can find is in our own hearts, our own lives." He then read the notices; singing No. 225 followed.

Rev E M Antrim was the preacher. His text was Matt xxvii: 42. He said "There are three thoughts that naturally emerge from these words. They were spoken in raillery. He saved Lazarus physically, many spiritually. The glory hidden in that life we, after thousands of years, can understand today. If you go from the mere physical to the spiritual many now could say

'He saved me.' If he had elected to come down from the cross he could have done so. The cross is written across the face of God's creation. Vicarious suffering for another is written upon all creation up to the creator himself. It is true spiritually that only in the death of self can we come into the true life. Jesus poured out his life on the cross for our redemption. 'He saved others, himself he could not save.' " Dr L B Bates gave the closing prayer. An altar service followed. Hymn 241 was sang at the close.

At 1.15 Miss Waterman led the meeting in the chapel. The subject was "The Geography Boy." Soloist, Miss Bridgham.

At 1.15 the Epworth League was led by Rev E C Bridgham, subject, "False Standards." Misses Anna Bridgham and Edna Black sang a duet.

At 1.15 the Asbury Camp Meeting Corporation and Delegates held their business meeting in Jesse Lee Hall. President L B Bates presided. The meeting was opened by singing "Rock of Ages," followed with prayer by Rev H G Alley. The first report given was by Rev R P Walker, Chairman of the Library Committee, who said that there were at present 680 books in the library, of these 107 were new books. Cards issued 1906, 290; 1907, 294. Books given out 1906, 1733; in 1907, 1997; increase, 264. Amount of money expended, $60.58. The Library Committee for 1907-1908, were Rev R P Walker, Misses Ida B and Amy M Johnson, Edna L Black, Vivian Fowler and M Louise Hawkes. Dr Leonard said that the library is much appreciated and a motion was made and seconded that the library report be accepted and a rising vote of thanks given.

President Bates said "If there is a man on the camp ground who is thankful it is your president. Many come here to be cured of lung trouble and are benefited."

Secretary and Treasurer Leonard gave in his annual report, as follows:

General Superintendent Robson said he was present at the first camp meeting and had been present every year except three, for the best of reasons. "When we took the Grove the yield of hay was very small, but under the management of the present Foreman of the Grove we have more than sufficient for our own use. We have had to fight the gypsy moth, but we have saved the Grove." His report was accepted.

Rev C E Tilton moved that a vote of thanks be given to the Corporation and especially Mr. Robson for the care of our Grove. This was seconded and unanimously approved.

Rev A M Osgood voted that the Association give its moral support to the temperance sentiment in this town. Seconded by Dr Leonard and approved unanimously.

Treasurer Leonard then read the report of the Asbury MENTOR. The publisher had mailed copies all over the district to the different pastors, and had placed copies of the paper and directory in many of the church buildings. A vote of thanks was given her for her work.

The Treasurer also moved that a vote of thanks be given Mr Hutt, the night reporter on the Lynn ITEM, for his very excellent reports during Camp Meeting week, which was heartily given.

Mrs Farwell spoke of the Library building.

Remarks were made by Mr Robson regarding the store, etc.

A committee of five, consisting of two of the Association and three cottage owners, Messrs Leonard and Robson, Mrs Farwell, Mrs Lawford and Mrs Hawkes, were appointed to confer with the Library committee to erect a suitable building.

Voted to adjourn. The meeting closed with singing and benediction by Dr L B Bates.

The 2.30 p m service in the Circle was opened with praise. The Scriptures were read; prayer was offered by Evangelist Evarts; Miss Leith sang a solo; Dr Bates made remarks; the collection was taken and notices given; Dr Leonard made remarks; hymn 229 was sung.

The speaker of the afternoon was Rev F A Gould, D D, who took for his text Phil II: 13. He said, "The human soul is the only place in the universe where God has placed any limitation on the Almighty. He stands ready to supply all our needs according to the 'richness of his glory,' but we can lock Him out of our hearts if we wish. If all bars were let down and all enmity at an end and God was let in can you for a moment imagine the great change in a human soul. More and more this humanity of ours is coming to realize the wonderful saying 'He made them to have dominion,' etc. What would God not do with our lives if we would give Him the right of way. He could do great things for us if we would let Him." Dr Leonard made closing remarks and all sang the "Glory Song."

At 4.30 Rev C E Everts had charge of the boys' meeting.

At 6 o'clock meetings were held in several of the church houses.

The 7 p m service was held in the tabernacle and opened with praise. The Scriptures were read by Dr Perrin; prayer was offered; Miss Leith sang a solo; Dr Leonard made remarks; hymn 189 was sung.

Rev W T Perrin, Ph D, of Melrose preached a powerful sermon from the text Num XII: 30, "And Caleb stilled the people before Moses." He said, "The children of Israel had spent about a year at Sinai. There were great difficulties in their way of entering Canaan. Caleb and Joshua said they were able to possess the land. Here is a lesson for all time. All lands that are worth possessing are on the other side. There were insurmountable obstacles. The same thing is true in everyday life. These lands of promise are on the other side of insurmountable obstacles. The great thing in human nature is character. The trouble is not getting us into heaven but getting heaven into us. Pessimism and suicide are the outcome of a material life. The presence of God is the assurance of victory. God has a way to overcome obstacles. In the ancient days they had the cloud. Today we have Christ. When God places before us the promised land of full salvation, let us go up. 'His name shall be called Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins.' Let us go up. Final victory over all our foes. God never sends a man to be defeated. The Lord Jesus knows how to get at the hearts of the people, so I say, brothers and sisters, let us go up and possess the land."

A glorious altar service closed this meeting.

Friday, August 30

At 6 a m, Rev W F Chaffee was the leader of the meeting held at the stand. It was most interesting.

At 8.30 o'clock meetings were held in several of the church buildings and at 9 Miss Edith Waterman led the meeting for girls in the chapel.

The 10 a m service was held in the Circle and opened with praise, followed by remarks by Dr Leonard, reading of Scriptures by Rev W W Bowers, prayer by Rev E E Small closing with the Lord's prayer, solo by Miss Leith, notices and remarks by Dr. Leonard and singing by congregation.

The sermon was by Rev W W Bowers from the text John XIX: 25. He said, "Close to the cross we have the women mentioned in the text and the beloved disciple John; last at the cross and first at the grave. My subject is 'Spiritual Nearness to the Cross of Christ.' We shall never be able to understand the full significance of the death of Jesus Christ. It is in the light of the cross that man is seen at his very best. Man has not always been looked at as being of great value. Science today does not think so much of man. It is trying to put him on a level with an animal. It is through the cross that we learn that we were made in the image of God. It is through the cross of Jesus Christ that we get the best conception of the Brotherhood of Man. We are not, even now, recognizing the supreme beauty of the Brotherhood of Man. When we recognize that we are everybody's brother and that every woman is our sister then we shall be able to go into foreign lands successfully. This doctrine of the cross has brought cosmos out of chaos. We preach 'Christ the power of God' and the wisdom of God."

An altar service of great interest followed, closed by singing "Jesus, keep me near the cross."

At 1.15 the annual love feast of the Lynn churches was held at Jesse Lee Hall, with a large attendance, including many clergymen.

The Epworth League meeting was held in the Melrose house. Rev D H Gerrish was in charge. Rev B J Seaboyer led the service and spoke on "Christian Witness." Miss Muriel Williams was the soloist.

The Junior Epworth League met in the chapel under charge of Miss Waterman. Her subject was "The Angel Story." Rev J W Ward addressed the meeting.

The 2.30 p m service was held in the tabernacle and opened with praise. Rev T C Cleveland read the Scriptures and prayer was offered by Rev H L Wriston. Miss Leith sang "God will take care of you." Remarks by Dr Leonard followed, the collection was taken and the

Mrs Ann M, widow of the late Capt Warren Guptil, formerly of Gloucester, died at her home, 20 Boardman street, Salem, Oct 1, 1906, after a short illness. Capt Guptil was lost at sea many years ago, also the vessel and all on board. She was 72 years old.

She was the daughter of the late Peter and Dorcas (Adams) Miles of Gloucester and was twice married, her first husband being Beniah Higgins of Mt Desert, Maine; two children by this marriage grew to manhood and womanhood, George E Higgins, the well-known mason and contractor, of 113 Prospect street, Gloucester; and Mrs Ella, wife of Edward Reed of Salem. Mrs Reed died several years ago, leaving one son, Milton, whom the grandmother dearly loved and she ardently desired to see him a true christian and hoped to live until he was settled in life.

Beside her son and grandson, she leaves two granddaughters, Mrs Marion E, wife of Lewis Mason of Pigeon Cove, and her sister, Miss Irene Higgins of Gloucester. She also leaves one sister, Mrs Augusta (Parsons) Younger of Gloucester, and a niece, Mrs Lizzie Kibby of Concord, N H. (Mrs Miles, her mother, married Henry Parsons for her second husband.) She leaves a great granddaughter, little Miss Mason, daughter of Mrs Marion E Mason of Pigeon Cove.

She was a member of the Lafayette St M E church of Salem, also of the Daughters of Rebekah.

Funeral services were held at her late home in Salem, conducted by Rev J W Ward, her pastor, and the Daughters of Rebekah. The body was carried to Gloucester, and Rev A M Osgood conducted the services in the chapel at Oak Grove Cemetery, after which the interment was in the family lot.

She was a summer resident and cottage owner at Asbury Grove, owning 18 Mudge avenue, and her many friends have greatly missed her this season.

Miss Annie A., daughter of George and Annie (Adams) Robbins of Gloucester, who spent the summer of 1906 at Asbury Grove, passed away at her home on Eastern avenue, Oct. 8, 1906, at the age of 16 years, 7 months, after an illness of about a year. She was a promising young violinist, and played at a great many entertainments in Gloucester. She was an only child and is greatly missed.

Mrs Eliza George, widow of Obadiah George, of Cambridgeport, Mass, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs O W Short, Somerville, Nov 4, 1906, at the age of 85 years.

Mrs George was passionately fond of the Camp Ground at Asbury Grove, and for forty years had been at the Grove every year until the summer of 1906, when failing health prevented coming.

Mrs George was perhaps the last of a group of men and women who did so much for old Trinity Church of East Cambridge in years that are gone.

Many will remember the wonderful Last Nights of the camp meetings in the East Cambridge tent, scenes she was never tired of recalling.

Mrs George for many years lived in her cottage on Oak avenue, afterward on Fletcher avenue. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs F. L. Noyes, Mrs O. W. Short, and a brother, Mr D. M. Hoegg of Portland, Me.

Mrs Florence (Jeffery), wife of Mr H A Spates of Winchester, died in Gloucester March 9, at the age of 49 years. She was the daughter of the late John Jeffery, who died in the Civil war. Her mother afterwards married twice. Her last husband, John Sigsworth, was lost at sea. Mrs Spates had been an invalid for the last thirteen years. She was a member of several societies connected with the East Gloucester M E Church and Clara Barton Lodge, Sisters of the G A R. She was buried in Cherry Hill Cemetery. Rev Charles Simpson of East Gloucester conducted the funeral services.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son Arthur N of Rockport and a mother, Mrs Sigsworth of Gloucester.

Mrs. Elsie (Dort), wife of Mr. B K Sherburne of Rockport, died at her home on Summit avenue, March 18, at the age of 35 years, 9 months, of cancer on the kidneys and enlargement of the liver, after an illness of less than two months. She was a daughter of the late George and Matilda Dort of Guysborough, Nova Scotia. (Mrs. Dort afterwards married Mr. Michael Knowlton, who died about ten years ago.)

Her funeral services were held on Thursday, March 21, Rev. Geo. F. Beecher, the East Gloucester Baptist minister conducting the funeral services. Elmer Burgess, John Graham and George F Cunningham sang "Good Night." Many beautiful floral tributes were given by friends, as she was an ardent lover of flowers. The interment was in the family lot in Rockport.

She was a member of the Baptist church and had the interest of her church and society always on her heart. She will be greatly missed by all the workers in her church.

She leaves a husband, a son, a mother, Mrs Matilda Knowlton, also a brother, Mr Joseph Dort, and a sister, Mrs James Breen, of Rockport to mourn her loss.

Gorham A, son of the late Gorham A and Mehitabel G (Allen) Parsons, of Gloucester, born June 30, 1838, and died March 18, 1907, aged 68 years, 8 months, 18 days. His mother was born in Manchester, his father in Sandy Bay, now Rockport. He married Miss Martha Brooks in 1858, by whom he had four children: two died in infancy, a daughter, Clara May, died in 1882.

He leaves a widow and a married daughter, Mrs Mattie Nason, wife of Physical Instructor Samuel R Nason, of Newburyport at whose home he died, two sisters and two brothers. He was a direct descendant of the Jeffrey Parsons family of Rockport.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Emeline Child, 84 years old, widow of the late William C Child and mother of Assistant Assessor William S Child, who died Tuesday, Apr. 16, was held from her late home, 59 Washington street, Thursday, April 18, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. Rev. Edgar C. Bridgman officiated and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W Merrill sang "He leads us on," and then "The Christian's Goodnight." The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The burial was in the family lot at Mount Auburn cemetery.

Mrs. Child had been a resident of Medford for 50 years. She was an active member of the First M E church, where her presence and helpfulness will be greatly missed. Having been prominently

Mrs. Child was born in Saugus. When a child she removed with her parents to Boston, where her education was obtained in the public schools of that city. In July, 1843, she was married to Mr. Child, and, in 1857, the couple came to Medford and had always resided at 59 Washington street. Two children were born to them, William S., and Charles K., the latter having passed away last August. William C Child, the husband and father, died 15 years ago. Besides her son, William S., Mrs. Child is survived by a sister, Miss Elizabeth Smith, and a brother, John W Smith of this city.

Miss Sarah A, daughter of the late Rev I J P and Matilda M Collyer, died in Quincy, May 20, at the age of 63 years. The Collyer cottage is 29 Hedding avenue, Asbury Grove Charlotte Berry, widow of John E Berry, passed away June 21, aged 80 years, surviving her husband two decades. She leaves two sons and two daughters, Theodore E Peterson, Charles E Berry, Mrs. Sophia A Colby and Mrs. Anna A Richardson. The deceased was a resident of Charlestown since 1854, residing on Lexington avenue since 1868. She was an old member of Trinity M E church, Charlestown, joining Nov. 3, 1872, under Rev. Ward Trafton, pastor.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from her late residence, 19 Lexington avenue, Rev A M Osgood officiating. Trinity church choir rendered appropriate music. The remains were taken to Gardner City cemetery, Chelsea, for interment. Among the floral tributes were: A pillow inscribed "Mother" from the children; wreath, "Grandma" from the grandchildren; wreath from the Scandinavian B R society; wreath from Mrs S M Peterson and Mrs G W Brackett; spray of roses from C E Berry; spray of pinks from Mr and Mrs G H Richardson; sprays from Mrs C Peterson, nephew and wife, Mrs A H Peterson, nephew and wife, Mrs W Keen and Trinity church; spray of roses from Miss Ida L Thompson; spray of pinks from the Munger families; spray of pinks from Mrs Karlson; spray of lilies from shipping department of Chase & Sanborn; standing wreath from the girls at Chase & Sanborn's.

84 years, 9 months and 6 days. She was in good health and quite smart for so old a lady.

In the early morning of Monday, July 8, she took a short walk. Between 11 and 12 a m she was suddenly stricken with paralysis. She never rallied but passed away on Wednesday between 11 and 12 o'clock. She left one daughter, Mrs. Samuel Batten of Lanesville, and six grandchildren. She had been in the Grove about two weeks.

The body was carried to Gloucester. The interment was in the family lot of Locust Grove Cemetery at Folly Cove. She had been a member of the Lanesville Universalist Church for many years.

Mrs Martha M. Briggs, wife of George M. Briggs, died at Asbury Grove, Wednesday, July 24, after a short illness with a complication of diseases, at the age of 40 years. She was visiting her sister on Asbury avenue when she was taken very ill and died. Her funeral took place Friday, July 26, at 2 o'clock from her late residence, 96 Neptune street, Lynn. Many beautiful floral tributes were given by the family, relatives and friends. The burial was in Pine Grove cemetery.

Besides her husband she leaves two children, a son and a daughter, to mourn her early departure.

NEWMAN—ARMS

A wedding of much social importance was solemnized at the home of Mr and Mrs F Cortez Arms, 645 Salem street, at eight o'clock, Tuesday, June 25, when their daughter, Miss Gertrude Etta Arms, became the bride of Wasey Campbell Newman, son of Mr and Mrs John Newman, 30 Waite street. Miss Thresa Newman, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Wesley Dickey of Linden was best man.

Rev Alfred Woods of Newburyport, former pastor of the Methodist church tied the nuptial knot. They were married under a beautiful floral arch and the double ring service was used. Master Clarence C Arms, brother of the bride, acted as ring bearer. The bride was tastefully gowned in ivory white chiffon taffeta silk trimmed with Irish lace with pearl trimmings. She wore a tulle veil caught up with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of the same flower. The maid of honor wore white silk muslin trimmed with blue and carried a bouquet of day break pinks. After the wedding a reception was held from 8.30 until 10 o'clock to which a number of friends and relatives attended. The bridal party were assisted in receiving by their parents. Mrs Newman wore lavender silk and the mother of the bride was gowned in cream Messaline silk with lace trimmings. The wedding march was played by Miss Rena Turner president of the Willing Workers' club of the Methodist church of which the bride was secretary. The house was elaborately decorated with green and white crepe paper and cut flowers. After the reception the happy couple went on an extended wedding trip to New York and on their return will make their home at 645 Salem street. A collation was served late in the evening and those that assisted in the serving were Mrs. Charles C Taylor, Miss Blanche Arms, cousins of the bride, Misses Eva Pierce, Bessie Henneberry, Ada Acres and Bessie Cunningham, members of the Willing Workers club, and Mrs. David Kirch of Mount Rose, nee Mabel Atkinson of this district, a classmate of the bride.

Miss Arms is one of the best known young residents of this city, having lived here for the greater part of her life. She is a graduate of the Maplewood school in the class of 1900 and has a large circle of friends. The groom has lived in this city for the past six years coming from Palmer where he lived a number of years. He is employed as assistant cashier of the Columbia National Insurance Co.

They received a large array of beautiful and costly presents.—Malden News.

CHAFFEE—DITMARS

In Woburn, June 27, Rev J R Chaffee, pastor of the Winchester M E Church and Miss Jennie Florence Ditmars, daughter of Mr and Mrs Adelbert D Ditmars of Woburn were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the Woburn M E Church by President Huntington of Boston University, assisted by Rev W C Chaffee of Faulkner, brother of the groom. They made an extended European tour.

Boys' Meetings

On Tuesday, Aug 27, at 4.30 p m, the first boys' meeting was held under the leadership of Rev Wilbur F Chaffee, of Faulkner, who began the meeting by telling the boys, how, five years ago, he went out in the woods to pray, when a boy asked permission to accompany him. Before separating the boy suggested that they invite other boys. The next day there were eight present; then sixteen; then thirty-two. Each year since then Brother Chaffee has held meetings for boys with great success. The boys formed themselves into a little band under the name of "The King's Sons." The meeting was an excellent one, there being twenty-eight present. Bro. Chaffee passed cards with name, King's Sons, on them for the boys to sign.

Those present Wednesday, Aug 28, were greatly blessed. We had singing, and several boys prayed and there were a number of earnest testimonies.

On Thursday, Aug 29, Evangelist C. L. Evarts came out to the woods and spoke to the boys. It was a blessed meeting and there were 31 present.

On Friday, Aug 30, Bro Chaffee was called away to Malden and Mr Eaton of Lynn led the meeting. There were about fourteen present. On account of the rain, the meeting, a blessed one, was held at the stand.

On Saturday, Aug 31, there were but three present, but Bro Chaffee said that the meeting was greatly blessed.

On Sept 1, Ray Noon, who, with Bro Chaffee, was the founder of the King's Sons, was the speaker. He spoke on "Chums." It was the largest meeting of the week, there being over 35 present.

On Monday, Sept 2, the meeting was held at the stand and there were thirteen present. A B

Camp Meeting

"Glory Song" sung.

Rev T C Cleveland took for his text 2 Kings vi: 17. He said, "Tell me what you see and I will tell you what you are. There is a narrow and broad vision—some have had their eyes opened by God and see clearly, as did the young man, in answer to Elisha's prayer; others have not had their spiritual eyes opened." His other text was Jeremiah i: 13. As God opened Jeremiah's eyes, so He will open our eyes and broaden our vision.

Rev E C Bridgham followed in an earnest altar service. He said, "God expects us to work for Him. The thing we need today is the baptism of the Holy Spirit." Spoke of his call to the ministry. The hymn "Saved to Serve" was sung.

The boys' service, led by Bro. Warren C Wheaton, a lay preacher, was at 4.30. The subject was "Making Something."

At 6 o'clock meetings were held in all the church houses.

The 7 p m service opened with praise under Profs Aborn and Howe. Reading of Scriptures, Acts ix, and prayer by Rev J W Ward. Solo by Miss Leith. Remarks by Dr Leonard. Miss Edith Waterman tells the story of her conversion in a most interesting manner.

Saturday, August 31

The 6 a m service at the stand was led by Bro L H Arey of Roxbury. Subject "Trusting in God." There were twenty-seven present and they all testified. Beautiful weather after last night's shower.

At 8.30 Rev Wilbur Chaffee led the service in the Wakefield building from the words "Study to show thyself approved of God." Interesting meetings were held in several other church houses.

At 9 o'clock the young ladies met in the chapel with Miss Edith Waterman.

The 10 a m service was held in the tabernacle and opened with praise. Rev F M Estes read the Scriptures. Prayer was offered by Rev O B Mours. Solo by Miss Leith, notices and remarks by Dr Leonard, singing, hymn No 17.

The sermon was by Rev. F M Estes from the text Luke xv: 17. Subject, "The Awakening." Spoke of the great European awakening, politically and spiritually. He said, "God grant that every obstacle may be removed to the spiritual awakening. The great need of the present hour is a revival of religion. There are three definite lines in which this revival can show itself—1, a revival that will greatly disturb the sinner; 2, it should also arouse the backslider; 3, one that will come to the church. We need local preachers, lay preachers and all the church at work to bring the world back to God. We want a revival that will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers. Every Christian is either a channel or a barrier."

After singing there was a glorious altar service, opening prayers being made by Rev E C Bridgham and Sister Cassie Smith. Sister Smith afterwards spoke a few words and Dr Leonard made remarks.

At 1.15 Miss Cassie Smith addressed the Epworth League in the Melrose house.

The Junior League under charge of Miss Waterman met in the chapel at 1.15 o'clock. Subject, "A Musical Boy of Long Ago."

At 2.30 p m the meeting in the Circle opened with praise. Rev C M Melden, D D, of Wilbraham read Hebrews 1; prayer was made by Rev Alfred Woods, closing with the Lord's Prayer. Miss Leith sang a solo. Remarks were made by President Bates and Presiding Elder Leonard; singing followed.

Rev C M Melden, D D, was the afternoon preacher. His text was Eph i: 22, last clause. He opened his discourse with prayer. He said, "God is not only Saviour but Lord. Jesus of Nazareth is 'King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.' Jesus Christ claims,

SUPREME LORDSHIP IN THE REALM OF NATURE

This physical universe is the work of God and His Son. As remarkable as was the beginning and close of our Lord's remarkable career, every step to the rock-bound sepulchre was significant. Nor must we forget that most remarkable instance of His inherent divinity. We do well to remember that 'He that was dead is alive again and alive forevermore.' The fruits of our fields and orchards are just as much His gifts to the people as was the manna of years ago. The claims of natural science will never be made good against our glorious religion. No chemist will ever destroy the efficacy of that blood that flowed from our Saviour's wounds.

OUR LORD IS SUPREME IN THE REALM OF CIVIL GOVERNMENT

He holds the nations of this world amenable to his law." Spoke of the ancient cities which were destroyed when they forgot God. His only thought in referring to the past, he said, "was that there is a power in the universe that makes for righteousness. God has not abdicated his throne. He still is and takes an active interest in the affairs of men. God has dealt with us as with no other people. He has given us the opportunity of working out the problem of universal happiness. If it be true that the destruction of these ancient cities was due to their corruption, who is there that can look with leniency upon the great evils that are gathering in our country. It is God that is judge.

OUR LORD IS SUPREME IN THE REALM OF RELIGION

Jesus Christ is supreme in the realm of Religion. He demands the allegiance of every heart and all the heart. The good work is going on. The whole East is luminous with the dawn of the Millennium day. All other religious teachers must fall before him. Jesus Christ is the Emanuel. He is 'God with us.' Profession is not enough. We must do the will of God. If we could acknowledge the Lordship of the Saviour over our lives, what a glorious result this would be. Let us pray."

An altar service of great fervor followed this masterly sermon, led by Rev C M Melden. Prayers were offered by Revs Leonard, Frick and Nazarian; Rev C M Melden pronounced the benediction.

At 6 p m meetings were held in several of the church houses.

The 7 o'clock service in the tabernacle, under charge of Dr Leonard, opened with praise. After singing hymn 143, the Scriptures were read; Rev C S Otto offered prayer. Miss Alice Leith sang a solo. After remarks by the Presiding Elder, "Blessed Assurance" was sung.

The preacher, Rev P L Frick, Ph D, took for his text John i: 46, last clause, "Philip said, 'Come and see.'" "Had Christ been an imposter, how quickly would those men found it out. For long centuries the church has been collecting facts concerning the fundamentals of the truths of the Gospel. Come and make the test yourself. Come and see. He had confidence in Jesus Christ. It is a great thing to have a Christ in whom you can have perfect confidence. Every nation gets its glory from the Gospel of Jesus Christ. See how sin with all its mighty cohorts has attacked the Christ and He has driven them back. Nathaniel would never have known Christ if he had not come and seen for himself. That moment when we shall say to the Christ 'I come,' He makes Himself known to us."

Miss Edith Waterman followed in an altar service, saying "He said to the dead arise, to the living, follow me." Told the story of an old lady who came all the way from California to place flowers on the grave of her hero, Paul Revere.

Sunday, September 1

The 6 a m service at the stand was led by Rev C W Simpson. He read

1 Cor II. About 100 were present.

At 8.30 was held the annual love feast in the Circle. 117 testimonies were given and more than as many more by rising gave in their silent testimony. Presiding Elder Leonard had charge of the services and made the opening prayer. Several hymns were sung through the meeting. Dr. Bates said "Please report me with a full cargo bound in." Miss Cassie Smith said she was converted at class meeting. Revs W F Chaffee, H L Wriston and many other ministers gave in their testimonies. The love feast closed with the doxology and benediction.

The 10 a m service opened with praise under charge of Dr. Leonard. Rev W N Mason read the Scriptures, selections from Luke xxiii. Rev E Blake made the prayer, closing with the Lord's prayer. Presiding Elder Leonard introduced Supt Robson, who stated facts as to the financial standing. He said he was at the first camp meeting; nine others said they were also present. After Dr Leonard had asked for subscriptions and read notices and made remarks they all sang.

Rev W N Mason, the preacher, took for his text, Gal vi: 14, 1st clause. He said, "If it is true the man Saul stood not far from the cross when he took the garments of the martyr Stephen. As he stood there and guarded his garments, he thought of this man Jesus only with feelings of disgust. The man Paul glories in the cross. The only thing that will break through the gloom and relieve the distress is personal contact with Jesus Christ. The sufferings of Christ interpret the mind of God. Men must pay the penalty, for love does not do away with the penalty of sin. For

'The bird with the broken pinion,
Never soared so high again.'

No man who yields to its power can ever be the same man again. The beatitude of the Greek was 'Blessed is he who thinks aright.' The beatitude of Christ is 'Blessed are the pure in heart.' Sin is an appalling calamity. All around us we see the evil effects of sin. The cross reveals the Power that should break the power of sin. In the struggle and stress of your life, when the evil seems so great as to engulf you, come to Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ says 'Come' Will you come?"

A glorious altar service followed, closed with the benediction.

At 1.15 the Epworth League meeting was held in the Melrose house, which was filled to overflowing. Revs C W Simpson and J G Benson were the leaders.

At 1.15 the Junior League under Miss Waterman, met in the chapel. Rev J W Ward was leader, Miss Condon soloist and Miss Elsie Leonard, organist. The children marched around the chapel singing "Onward, Christian Soldier." Subject, "A Question I Can Help Answer."

The afternoon service opened at 2.30 in the Circle with praise under Profs Aborn and Howe. Presiding Elder Leonard was in charge. Rev Henry L Wriston read the Scriptures, John xv: the first 16 verses. Prayer by Rev J G Benson. Solo by Miss Leith. Drs Leonard and Bates made remarks, the collection taken, notices read and hymn 199 sung.

The sermon was by Rev H L Wriston, from the text John xv: 14, "Ye are my friends." He said, "The joys of life are largely dependent on life's friendships. In soul culture, spiritual culture, friendship has a large place. Jesus is a true friend. All genuine friendship must have its foundation in character. The deeper and richer the moral culture, the sweeter and stronger is true friendship. The moral excellence of Jesus accounts for the confidence reposed in Him. It is a blessed thing to stand here and meet a friend who never disappointed the confidence of a human life. Jesus is a sympathetic friend. He will listen to your tale of sorrow. He is not only a sympathetic friend, He is an abiding friend. Jesus is a satisfying friend. We can never come to soul-rest until we come to know Jesus. We cannot face the afternoon of life successfully unless we know Him. The friendship of Jesus works a miracle of transformation. Friendship opens the doors of the intellect. Of all the miracles wrought by friendship the greatest is wrought by the friendship of Jesus Christ. Of all the personalities to touch a life and lift it up that of Jesus Christ lifts it to the highest plane. 'Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you.'"

Rev H W Wriston led an altar service of much interest. It was closed by singing and the benediction.

At 6 p m Rev C W Simpson led the service in Jesse Lee Hall. Miss Cassie Smith led the meeting in the Salem house. Mr Frank Ferrin of Peabody gave a solo, with Miss Florence Hurd as organist.

The evening service at 7 p m was held in the tabernacle and opened with praise. Presiding Elder Leonard had charge of the meeting. Miss Leith sang a solo. Rev E D Lane read 1 Cor last part of 15th chapter. Prayer by Rev H G Alley. Remarks by Dr Leonard followed by collection. The "Glory Song" was then sung.

Rev L B Bates, D D, preached from the text in Rev xxii: 14. The tabernacle was packed, and Dr Bates preached one of his strongest sermons. He spoke of "the CITY that hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God," and told how, in his severe illness of a year ago, he had a vision of Heaven and was told that his life's work was not yet finished; he was to labor for the Master a while longer. He said, "The great attraction there is Jesus Christ. Heaven without Christ will not be heaven. He redeemed you."

Miss Leith followed with a solo. The altar service was full of power. Dr Leonard closed with prayer. A large number of those present took part in the good-bye walk and the pastors and people parted with a cordial handshake.

Epworth League Day

Monday, Sept 2, Epworth League day, under the auspices of Lynn District Epworth League. The Leagues met in Asbury Grove and invited the Leagues from Boston and Cambridge Districts to meet with them.

The 6 a m meeting was held in the Circle, a fitting beginning for the day's exercises.

The MORNING SESSIONS were as follows:

At 9.30 the meeting was held in the tabernacle. Back of the stand was this motto, "Expect Great Things from God. Attempt Great Things for God." Rev H L Wriston spoke on 'Pentecost' from Acts II. Rev Charles Tilton gave an interesting talk. A collection was taken. Miss Leith sang a solo. A large number of leaguers took part.

11.00—DEPARTMENT CONFERENCES—In charge of District Vice Presidents.

The Department Christian Work was held in the Melrose house, Alexander Kerr presiding. Secretary Miles of the Malden Y M C A, and other speakers took part.

The Department of World Evangelism met in the chapel, Miss Maynie Hanson, presiding. (a) China and Her Centennial, Rev T C Cleveland; (b) A Model Mission Study Class, Miss Lillian Eastman. (c) An illustrated Children's Lesson, Miss Gertrude Freeman.

Department Mercy and Help, Jesse Lee Hall, F W Makepeace, presiding. (a) First Aid to the Injured, Dr T A Lane; (b) Settlement Work, Miss M A Gavin, Deaconess; (c) Temperance, Rev. C L Peterson.

Department Literary and Social Work, East Boston Bethel, Miss Laura A Prior, presiding. Interchange of programs and Open Discussions of Methods.

Junior League, Wakefield House, Miss Eva A Paisley, presiding. There were twenty-five present. Rev C W Blackett gave a ten minutes' address on "Origin of the Junior League." Miss Acker, a Deaconess, spoke of the Mercy and Help Work. Miss Fuller, Junior Superintendent of the General Conference, read an interesting paper on "League Methods." Rev A C Saxman offered prayer. The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev A M Osgood.

The AFTERNOON SESSION opened at 2 o'clock in the tabernacle.

Praise Service, conducted by Prof Aborn, opening hymn "All Is Well." The Devotional Exercises were opened by Presiding Elder Leonard. He read the 91st Psalm and offered prayer, then hymn 226 was sung. The Roll Call by Miss S. Gertrude Mayo called forth a response from forty-three chapters. Reports from Morning Conferences by Secretary Oliver T Noon was read and approved. Following the offering came a solo by Miss Alice E Leith.

The Address, "The Modern Test of Christianity," was by Rev Frederick H Knight, Ph D. He said, "The Ideals and Principles of Christianity have been tested over two thousand years." Spoke of meeting thirty-eight of his class of sixty-seven members, at a banquet after 25 years. "True abiding inward peace come only when the soul surrenders itself to the Christian religion. If they could formulate their greatest desire into one word, that one word would be righteousness. They are waiting for the Son of Righteousness to rise with healing in His wings. God has wonderfully blessed the people the past week. The Epworth League can do all that is necessary. Have we that christianity that will enable us to go forward and glorify our common Lord in the service of humanity?"

The services closed with singing "Onward Christian Soldier" and the benediction.

The District officers 1907-08 are H A Weeks, president, Melrose; A Kerr, first vice president, Malden; Miss Maynie Hanson, second vice president, Stoneham; F W Makepeace, third vice president, Lynn; Miss Minnie Bryer, fourth vice president, Wakefield; O T Noon, recording secretary, Everett; Miss S Gertrude Mayo, corresponding secretary, Lynn; Mrs Jessie C Thaxter, treasurer, Reading; Dr E M Dolloff, auditor, Lynn; Miss Eva Paisley, junior league superintendent, Lawrence. Missionary Sunday

At 10.30 a m the Sunday School met in the chapel, H N Hovey, superintendent, Miss Elsie Leonard, organist, and Miss Muriel Williams, soloist. The attendance was 125, the collection, $2.14.

At 2.30 the W F M S and W H M S met in the Circle. The speakers were Miss Francis V Russell, Browning Home, Camden, S C, and Mrs A D Foust, missionary from Africa. Dr Leonard had charge of the services. Miss Elsie Leonard was organist, C E Keniston, chorister. Dr Leonard read Matt xxvi: 33 onward, and prayed, closing with the Lord's prayer. Mrs Moody of Lynn was the soloist.

Presiding Elder Leonard then introduced Mrs A B Fowse of Africa, who represented the W F M S. She spoke of her six years' experience in Liberia, and of the conditions and progress of missionary work in that faraway land. A quartette rendered fine music.

At the close of Mrs Fowse's address, the Presiding Elder introduced Miss Frances Viola Russell of Camden, S C. She spoke of those who went there to establish the work and those who contributed towards its support, the progress the colored people are making, how they are trying to educate their children and get homes for themselves and the great sacrifices they are making in order to do this. The W H M S are doing a great work in industrial training, but they need better facilities, especially a laundry, where they can receive proper instruction in that much needed branch of work. A teacher is wanted for the Matthew academy, a school in connection with the Browning Home. Miss Russell's address is 1 Kensington Park, Roxbury, care of Rev V A Cooper.

A collection was taken and the service closed with the benediction.

The 7 o'clock service was held in the tabernacle. C E Keniston was chorister and Miss Lucy E Searle, organist. The chorus choir rendered sweet music. The Scriptures were read, Heb vi: 10 onward, prayer offered and notices read by Presiding Elder Leonard. Henry Boomhaver rendered "The Holy City" most acceptably. The collection was taken. The hymn "He Lifted Me" was sung.

Dr Leonard then introduced Mrs M F Gill, State President of the Woman's Prohibition Club of America, who gave a temperance address upon the subject, "Larger Than a Man's Hand." Mrs Gill had a pleasing address and put her audience at ease at once. She paid a beautiful tribute to Dr. Crane. She said "The cloud, like Elijah's cloud, is the cloud, 'Larger than a Man's Hand' gathering over the saloon today. The cloud is the great prohibition wave going over the country."

The services closed with singing "Rescue the Perishing," followed by the benediction.

Personal

Mr H A Spates of Winchester, Mrs Laura Spates of Stoneham and others were present at No 7 Fiske Avenue.

Mr Kendall G Pearson and wife of West Lynn occupied their cottage at 7 Sunnyside.

At No 18 Lee Park, camp meeting week, Mrs E M Brown of Saugus had as guests her son's family, Mr Wheelock W Brown, wife and son, Horace E.

Mrs E J Caldwell, Mrs A C Damon, Mrs F R Gifford of Dorchester, were at the Melrose house camp meeting week.

Mrs Ralph M Wonson and Miss Alice Giles Wonson, also Mrs F F Wonson of East Gloucester have been occupying the Wonson cottage on Skinner avenue. Later Mrs Etta Wonson and son of East Gloucester spent a few days at her cottage.

At No 3 Skinner avenue were Mr W A Batchelder, wife and daughter, Helen Louise, and Mr James Larrabee and nephew, Philip Chapman of Salem.

At No 12 Skinner avenue have been stopping Mrs L P Hooper, Anna M Lindsay, Mrs Lizzie Roundy and Georgia H Vickey of Marblehead.

GAS . . . PROVERBS

GAS is lighter than air and inclines upwards; the price, however, has tended downward until it is now 85c.

ALWAYS settle gas bills by the tenth of the month and get the discount.

SATISFACTORY results in cooking can be obtained better by gas than by any other method. Gas

SAVES labor, money and much work for the fire department.

TWELVE dollars will buy a gas range not inferior to the best in the market.

OIL and Gasoline are responsible for 50 per cent. of fire casualties.

VALUABLE time is often wasted on a coal fire when a gas stove would do the work in a few minutes.

EVERYTHING considered, we advise everybody to use gas for cooking and heating, and electricity for light and for power.

SAVE money and do business with us.
